REMEMBER?

THE LONG, LAZY SUMMER
DAYS THAT SLOWLY SLID
INTO FALL . . .

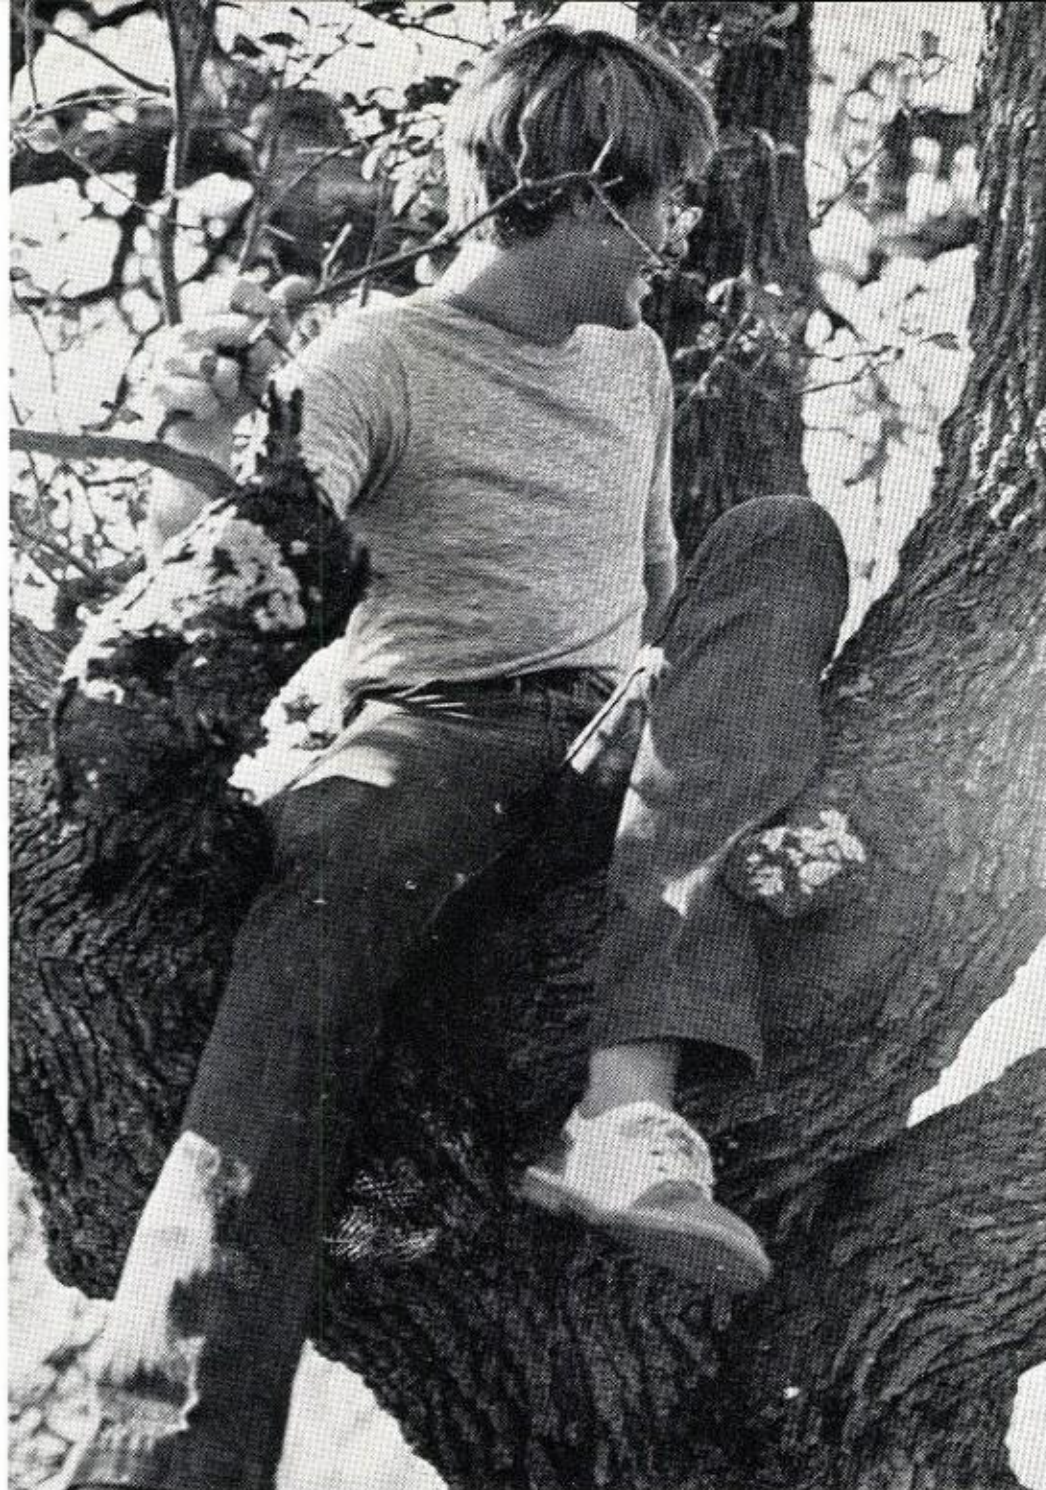

REMEMBER THE SOUNDS
AND THE SMELLS OF THE SUMMER?

HEAVY, QUIET,
FLUFFY, CLOUDS,
BRILLIANT BLUE
SKY, AND BUGS
BEGGING FOR RAIN RAIN . . .

CRISP, CLINGING, FALL CAME WITH FOOTBALL, STUDIES,
SWEATERS, COLD NOSES, COLD
TOES, GOLDEN LEAVES

BLUE SKIES, RAKES, FIRST CRACKLES OF FIRES,

LAST COUNTRY WALKS
AND TREASURED
THOUGHTS OF SUMMER
PAST . . .

THEN WINTER SILENCE AND CHILL.
REST, HARSH-SOFT DAYS; SOFT
NIGHTS; NO ONE DARES TO BREAK
THE SILENCE.

WINDS WHISTLE
LONELY 'ROUND THE
WALLS. FIRES
CRACKLE, PEOPLE
CUDDLE, HUDDLE.

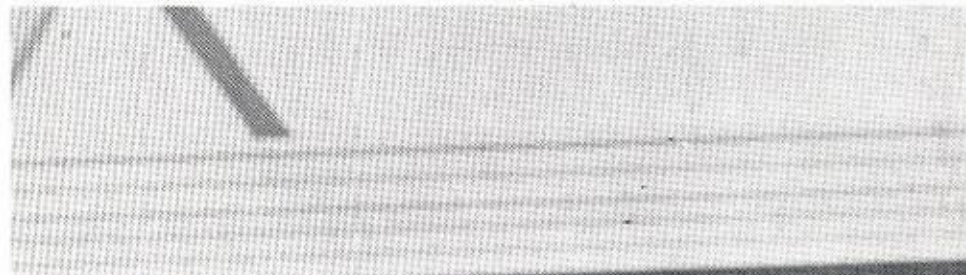

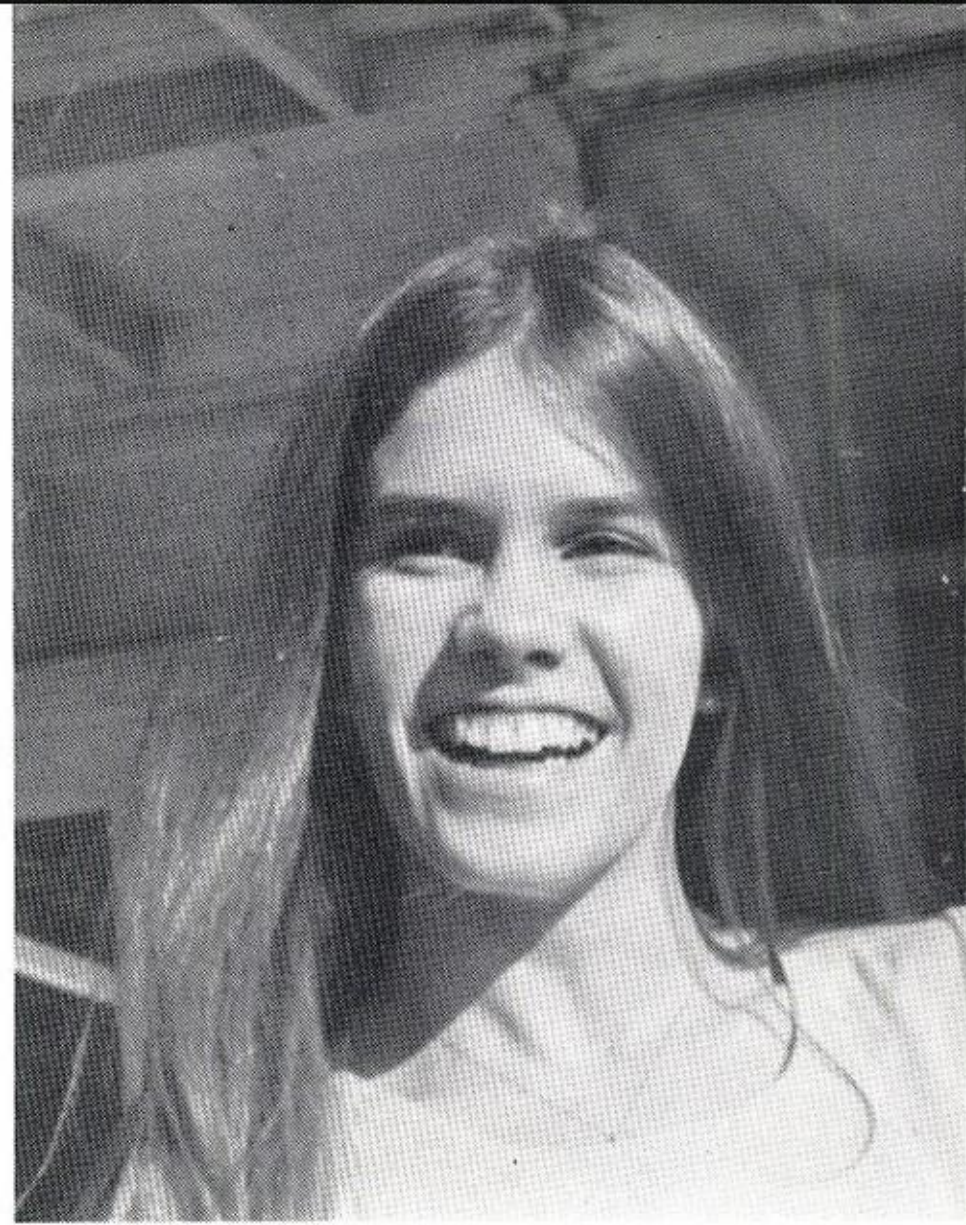

SPRING SCREAMS IN WITH A
SYMPHONY OF BIRDS, WIND, RAIN,

FLOWERS BURST FROM THE GROUND WHERE MUD HAS BEEN,

ONCE AGAIN LAUGHTER, SOFT, SILLY,
GAY, FILLING THE AIR. BILLOWY
CLOUDS, STRUTTING, PRANCING,
BEFORE THE BREEZE.

CAN YOU REMEMBER IT ALL? OR RATHER CAN YOU FORGET IT?

AH!
BLISS

THE M.H.S. BAND

Remember when the 8:30 a.m. rehearsals came so early for summer band students? Somehow from this sleepy beginning, Directors Hal Spencer and Bobby Meisch were able to mold another award-winning Pride of M.H.S. Band.

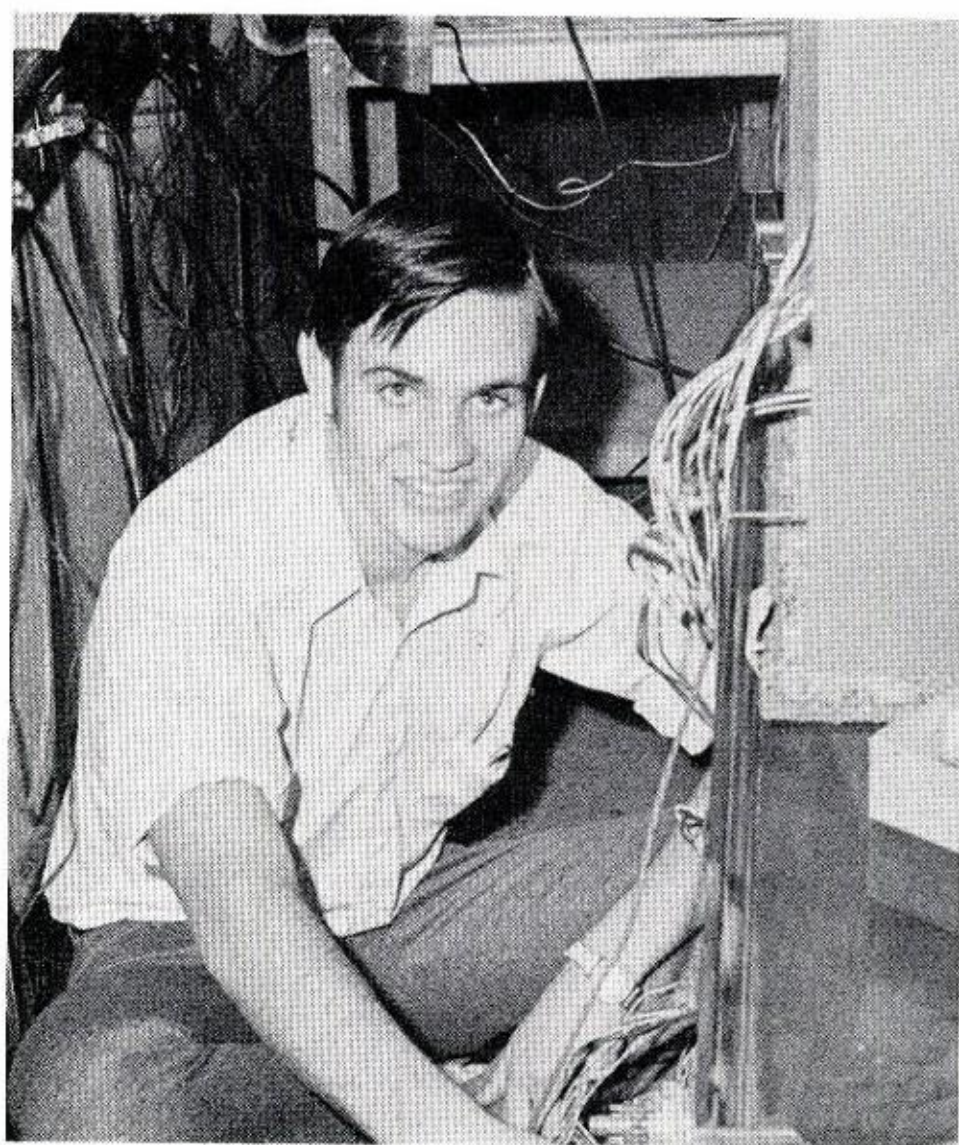

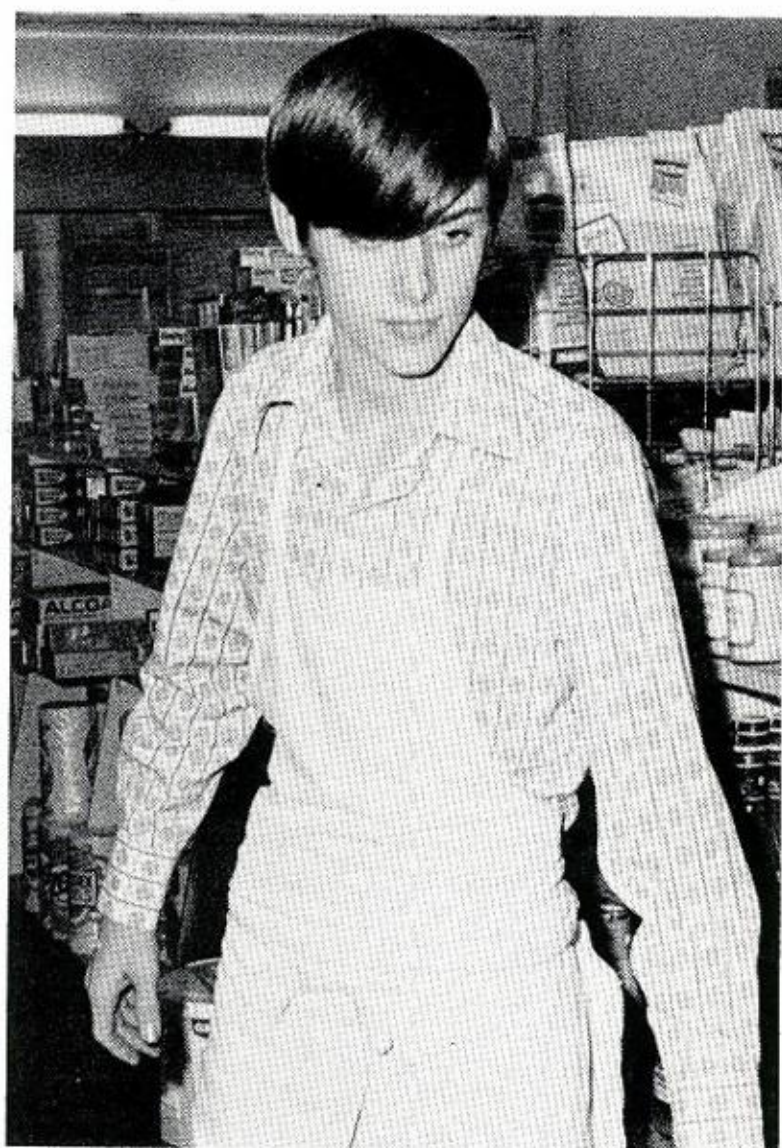

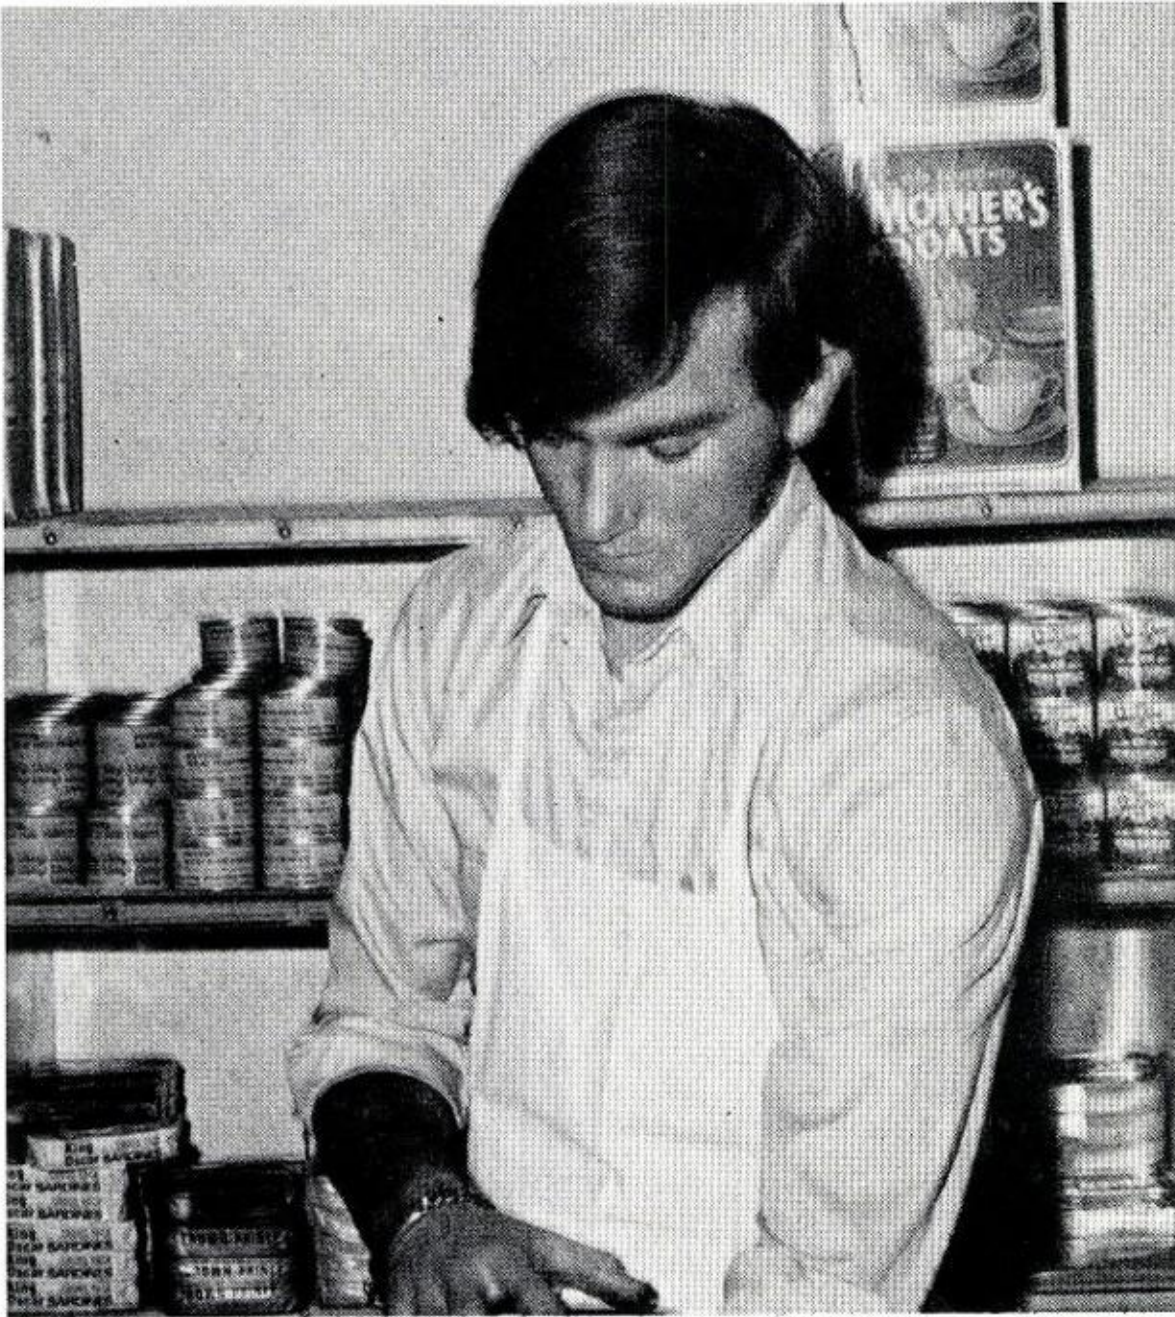

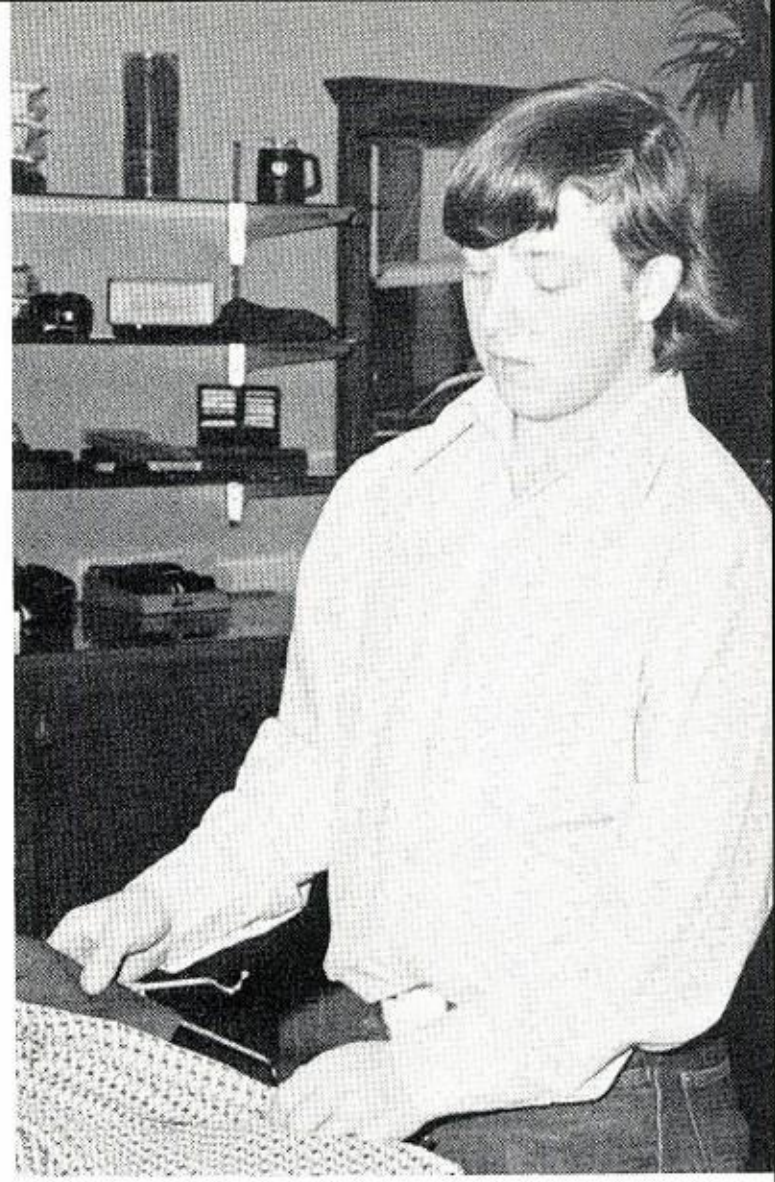

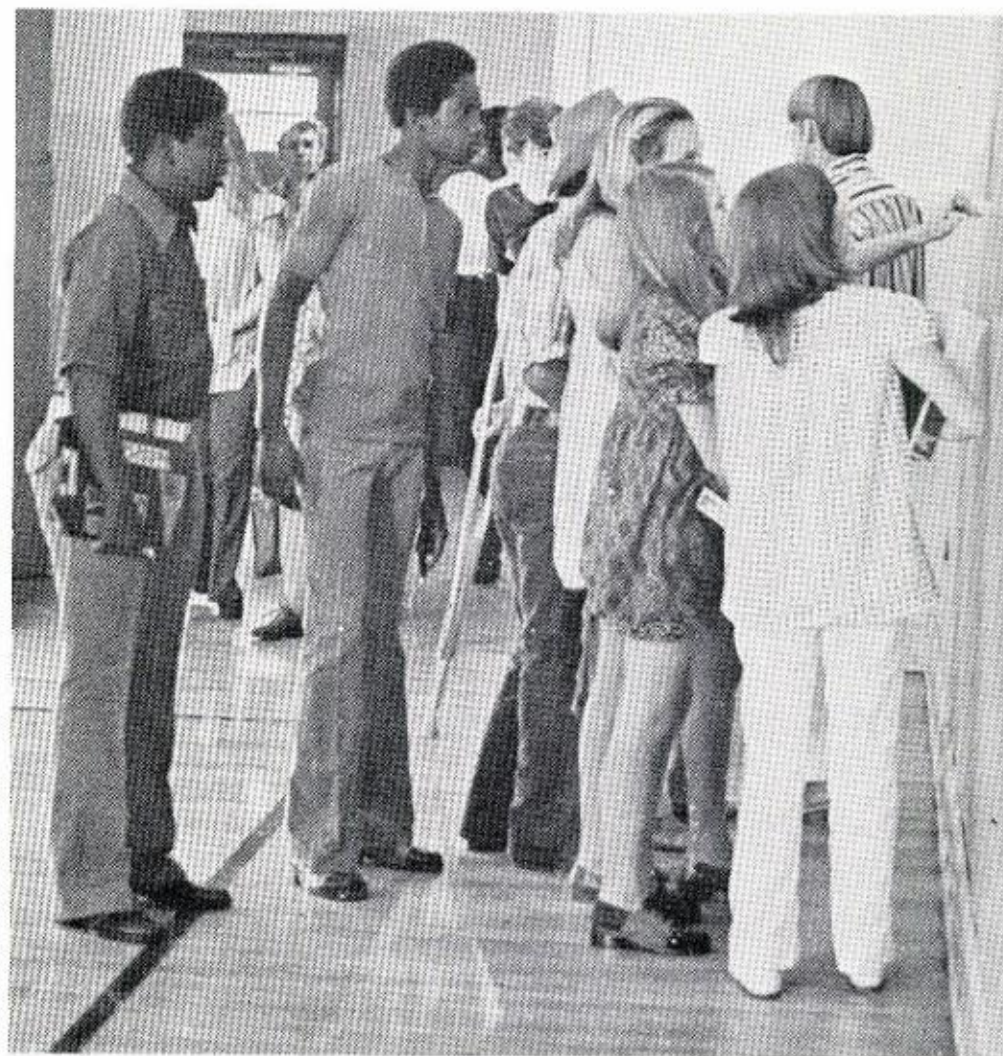

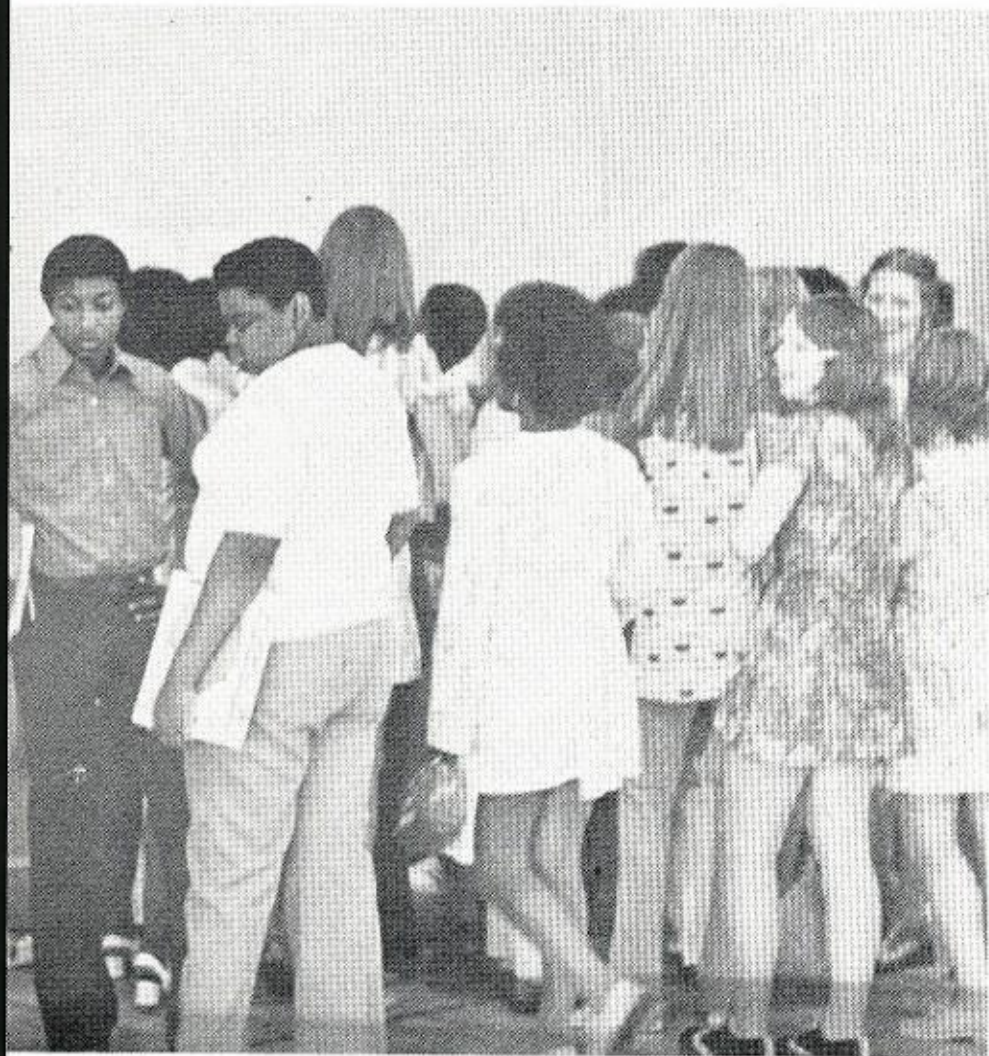

SOMETHING SMELLED "FISHY"

Remember when the senior band members put a reeking homemade concoction in their favorite freshman's hair at band initiation? Remember the clammy trail of the scents that followed?

REMEMBER WHEN THEY PLAYED . . .
NOW THEY WORK

Do you remember the first day's . . .

nervousness of the freshmen?

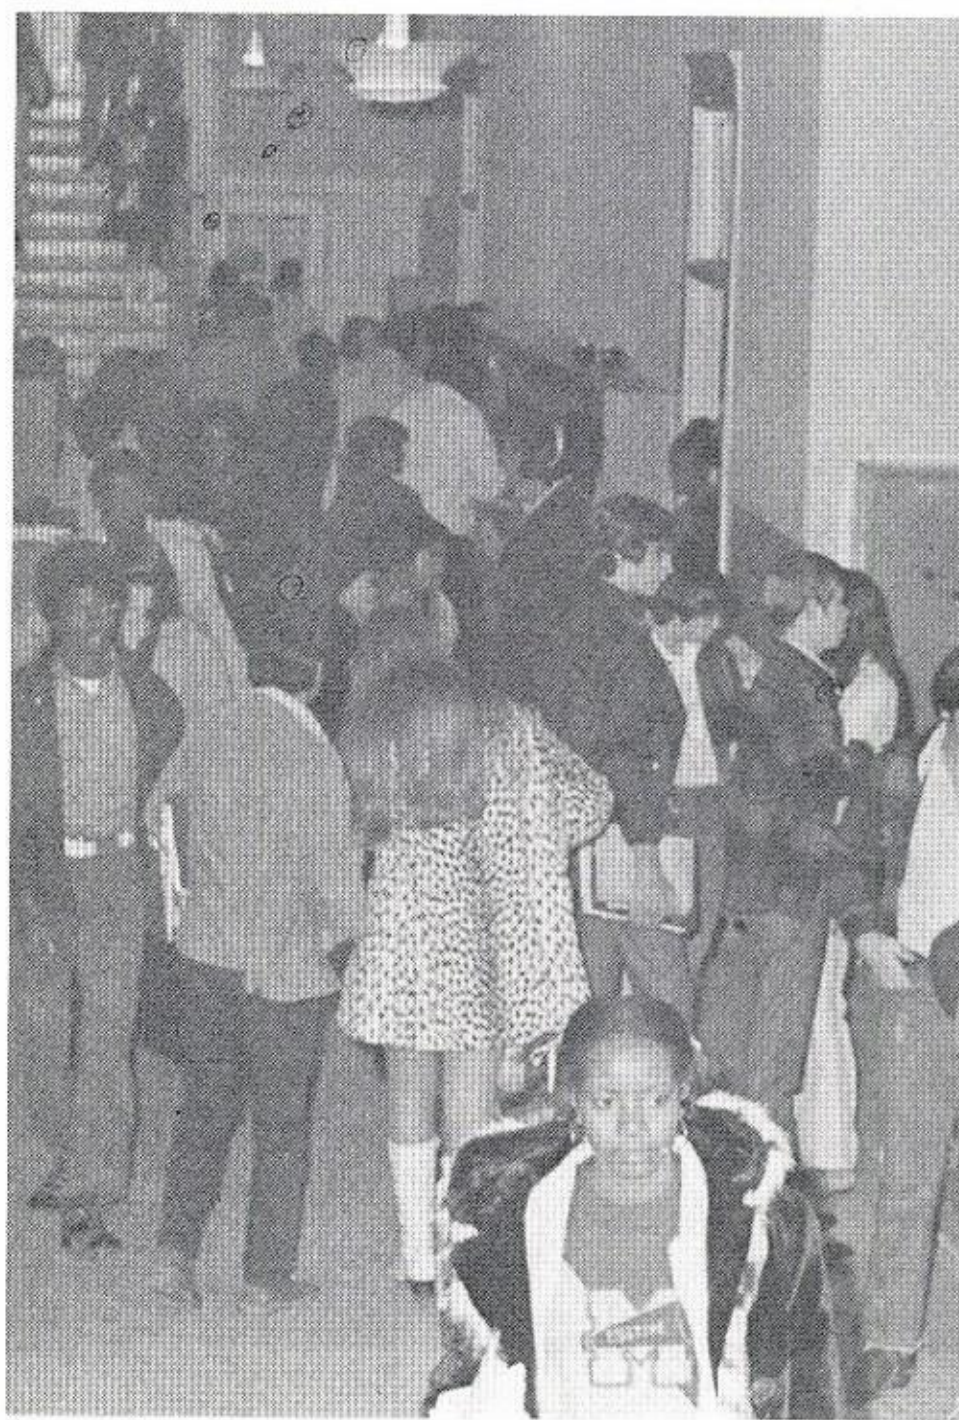

cool boredom of the seniors?

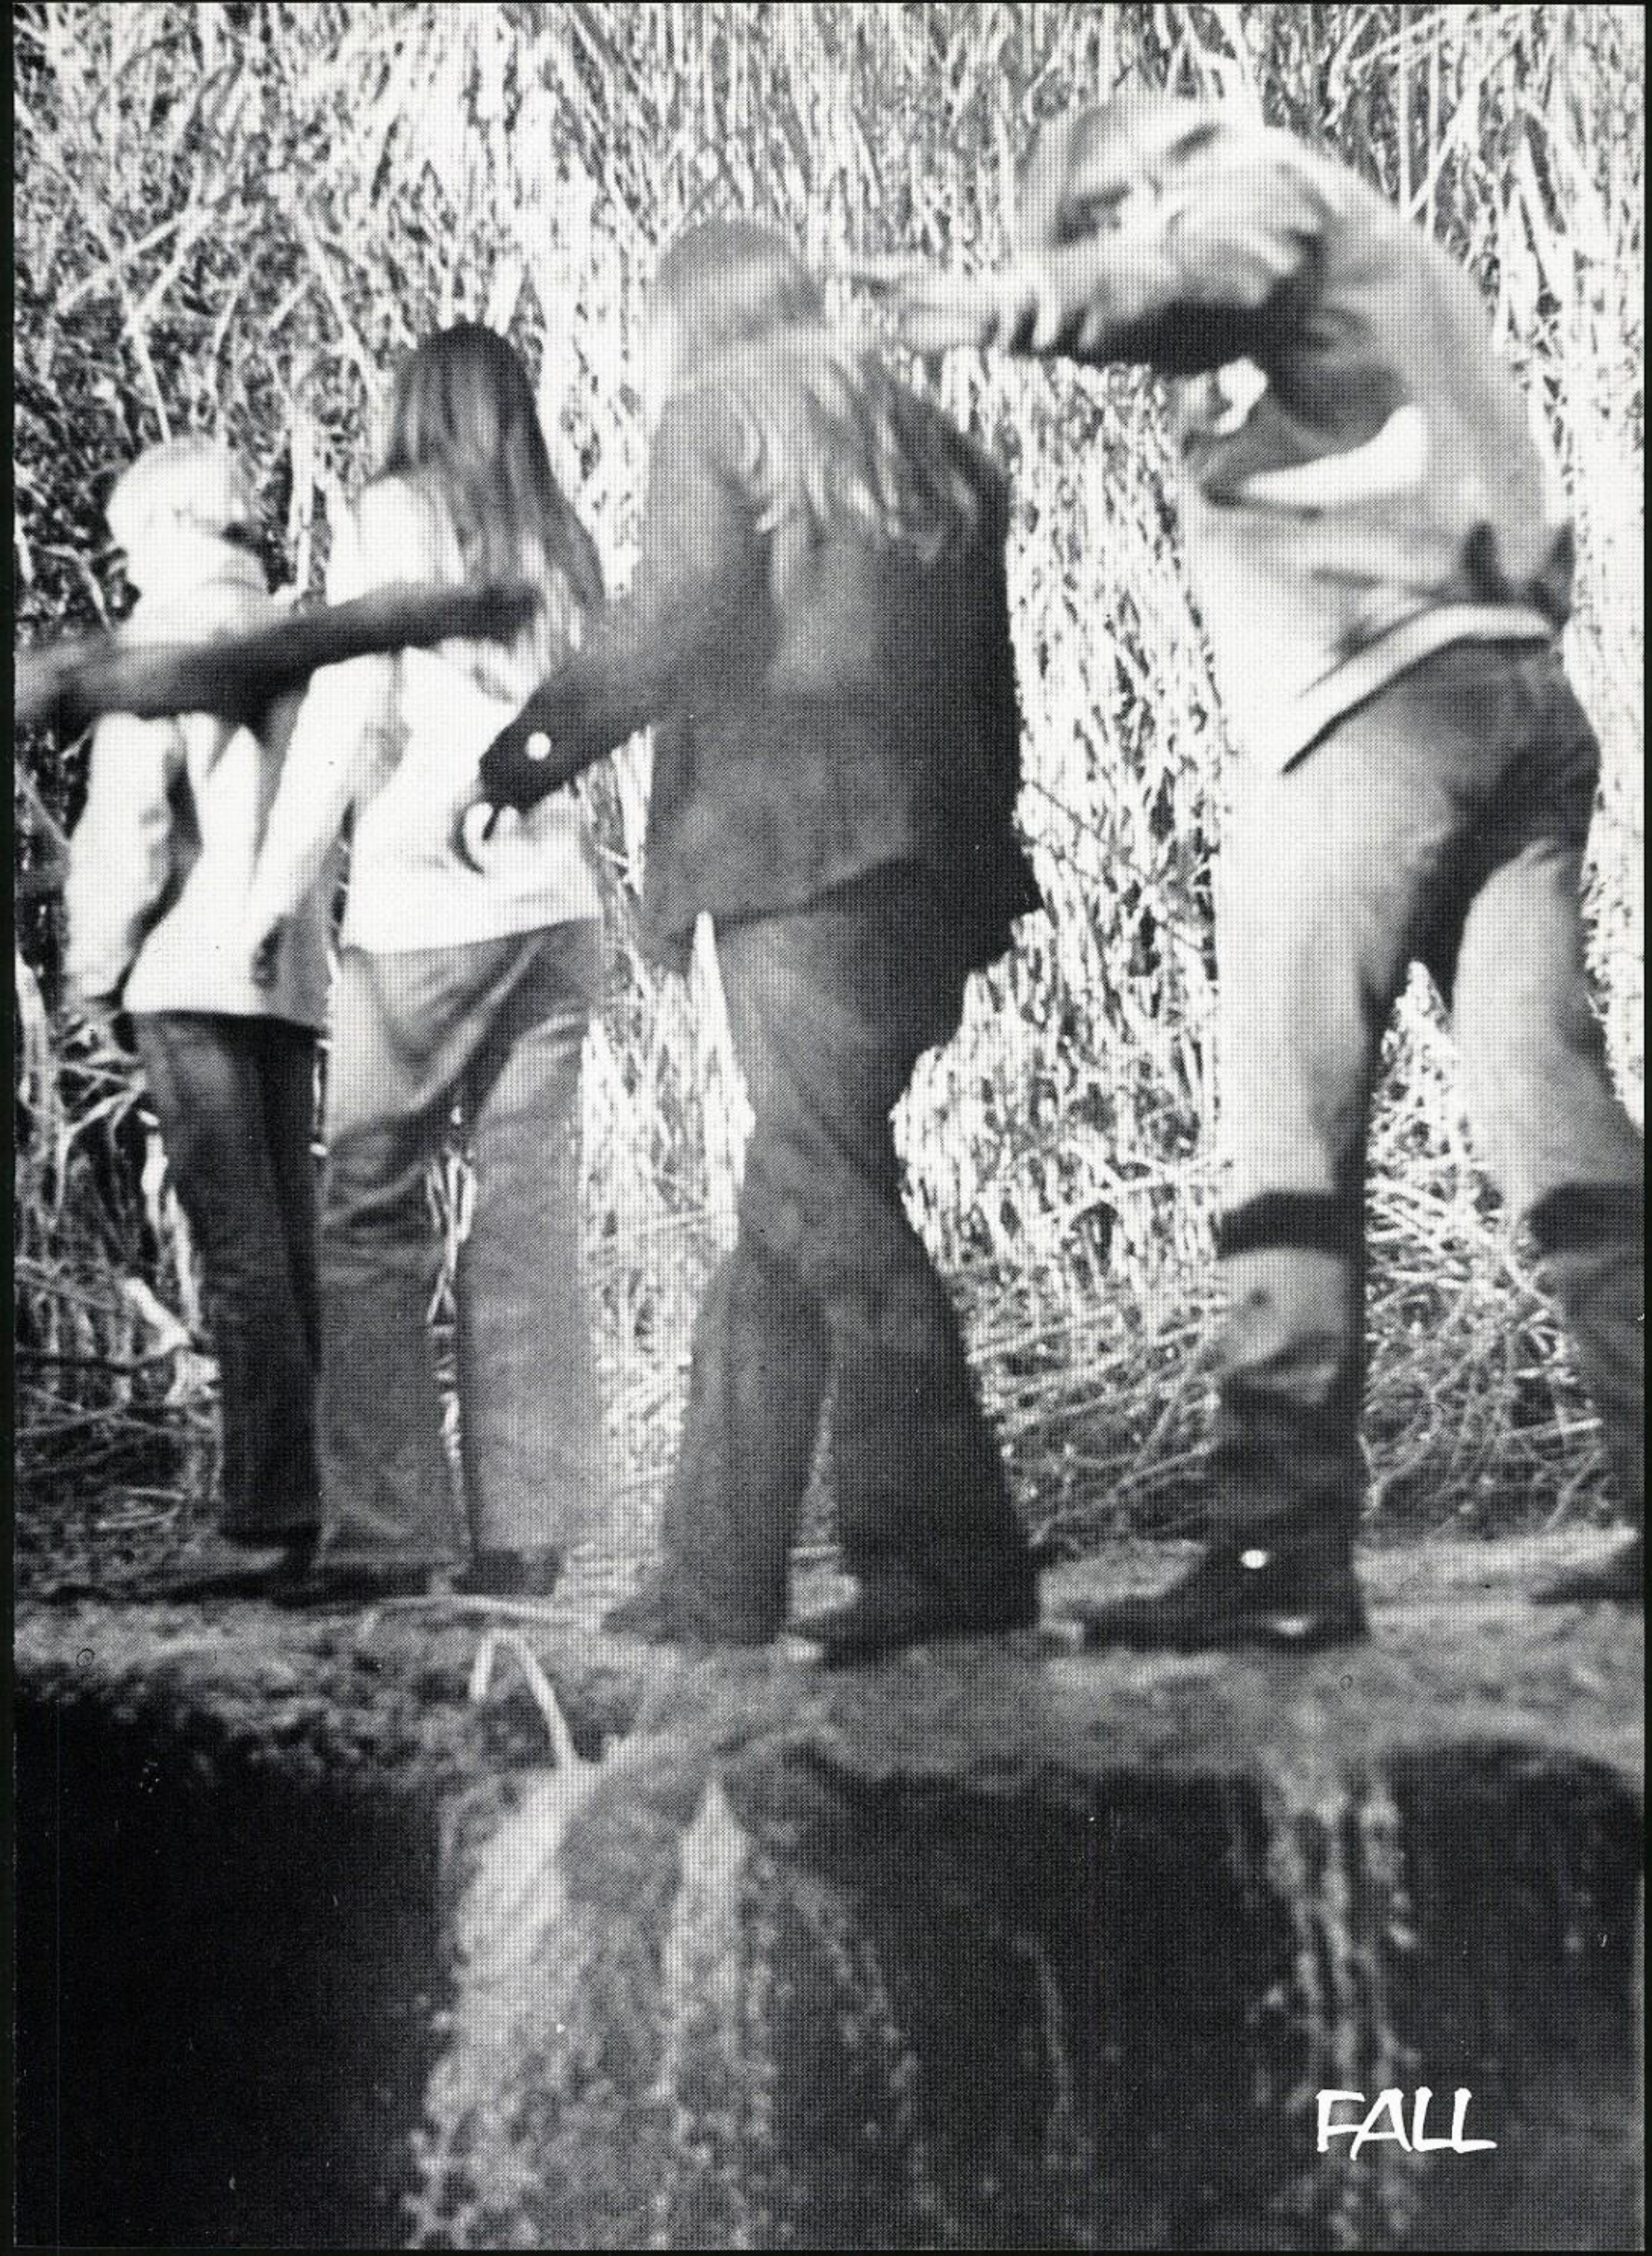

confusion in the corridors?

searching for homerooms on the lists?

rush between periods to find rooms and not be tardy?

BULLDOG
SPIRIT
NEVER
NEVER!
NEVER!!
NEVER!!!

Throughout the week, signs, posters, boxes, and various other spirit boosters were displayed around the school. Then Friday afternoon the spirit came to a climax, and nothing drowns the enthusiasm of MHS's students.

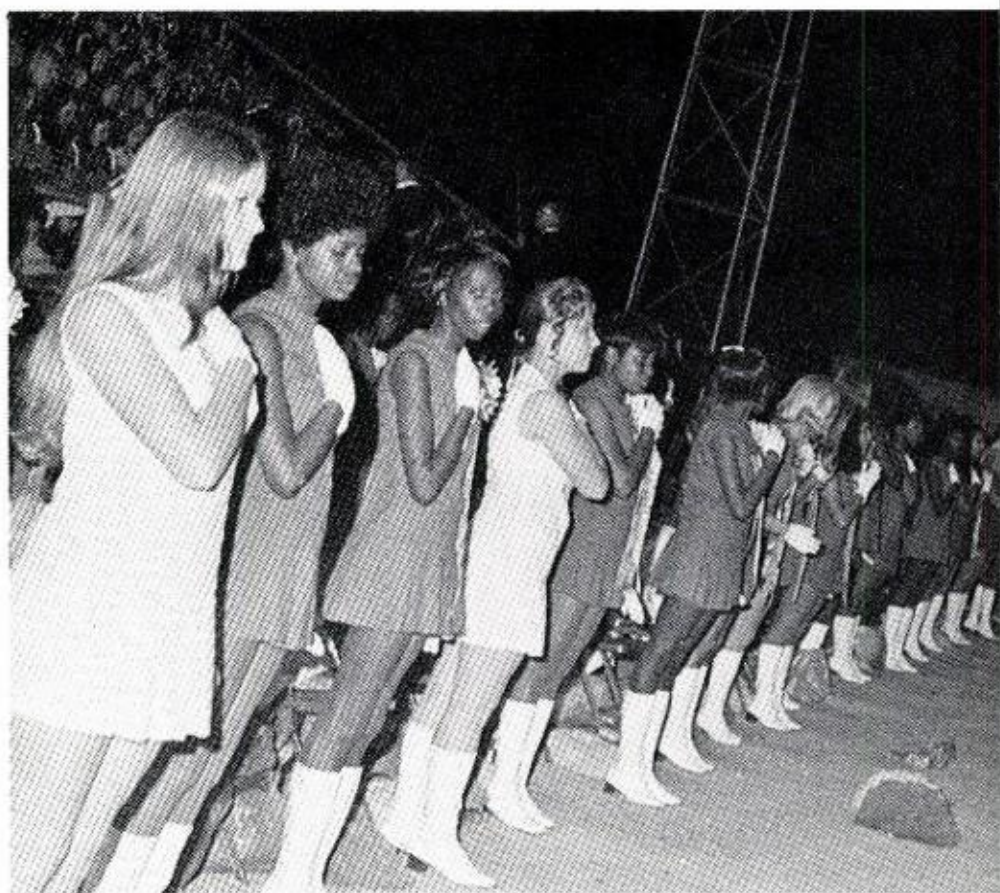

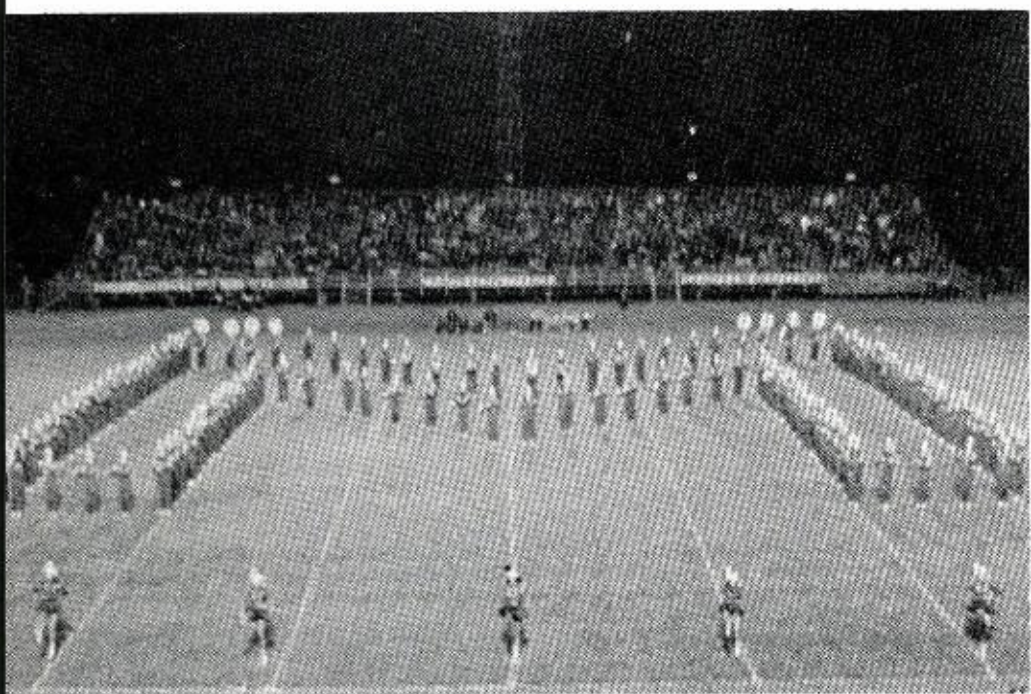

ENTERTAINMENT THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

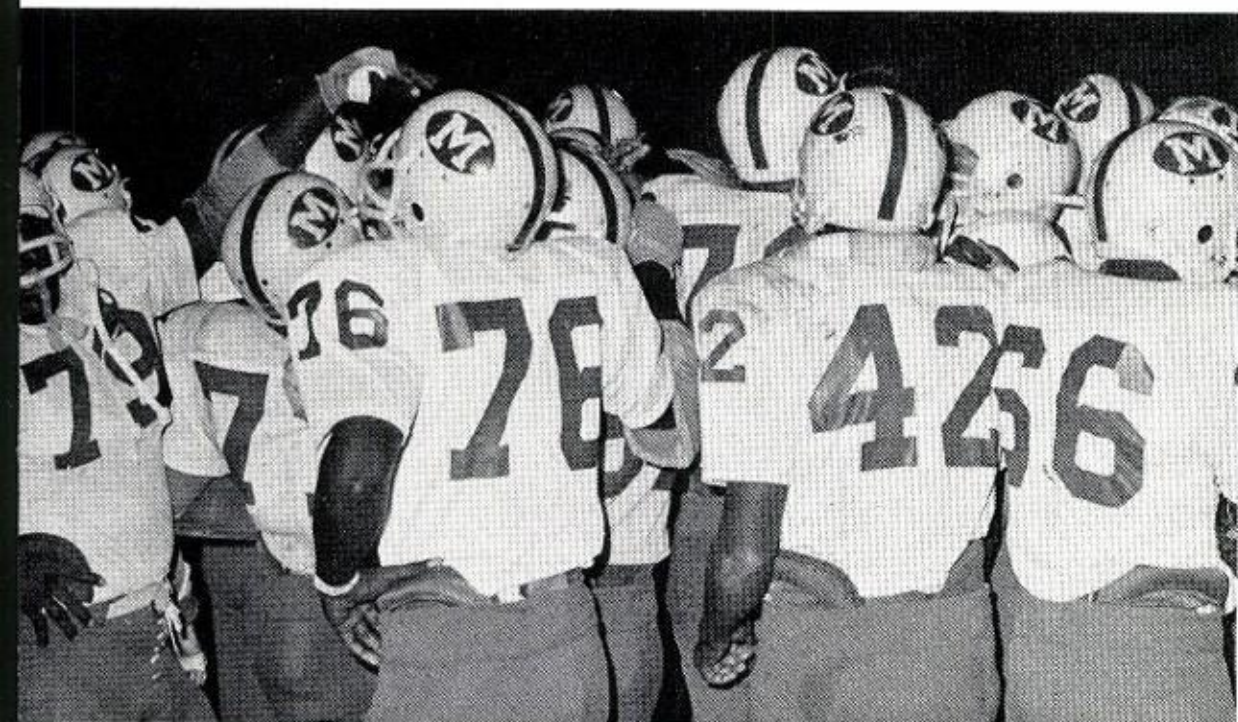

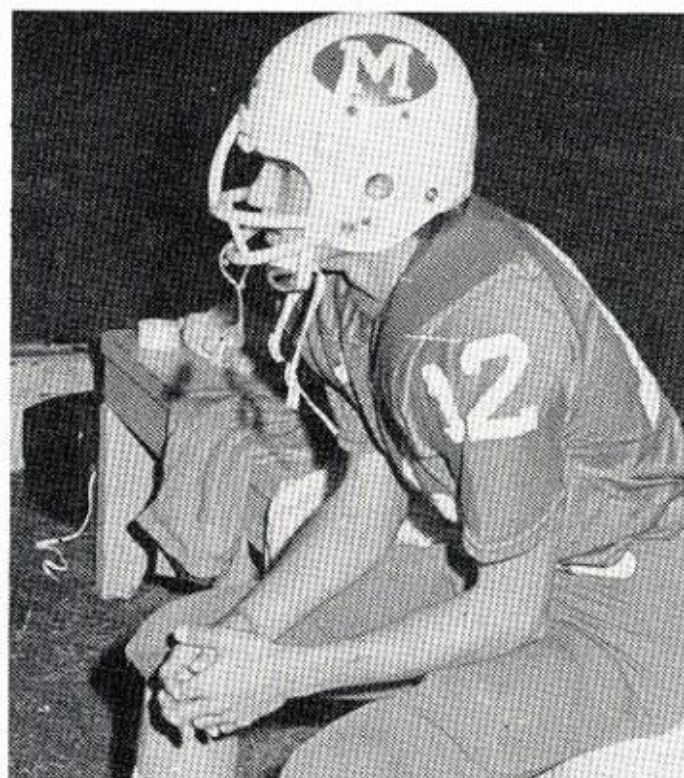

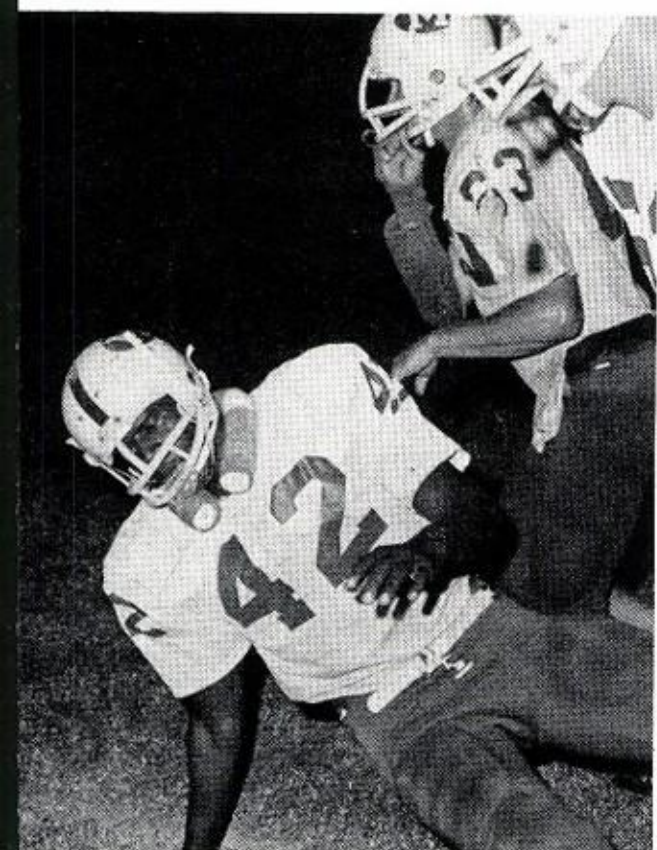

GRIDIRON CLASSICS

Remember the cheers, the alma mater? Remember the sweet misery on the football field during games and at half time?

Remember the anticipation of the band pep-squad, cheerleaders, and players on that first kick off for each game? A few even shed a tear.

1. Truly the "Pride of 74," the junior entry won first place in the float division. Miss Connie Scruggs represented the juniors on the float and as their nominee for Homecoming Queen.

2. Miss Dottie Edwards, senior princess, bid an early "Aloha," or good-bye, for the Seniors as she rode their float decorated with a Hawaiian theme.

4▼

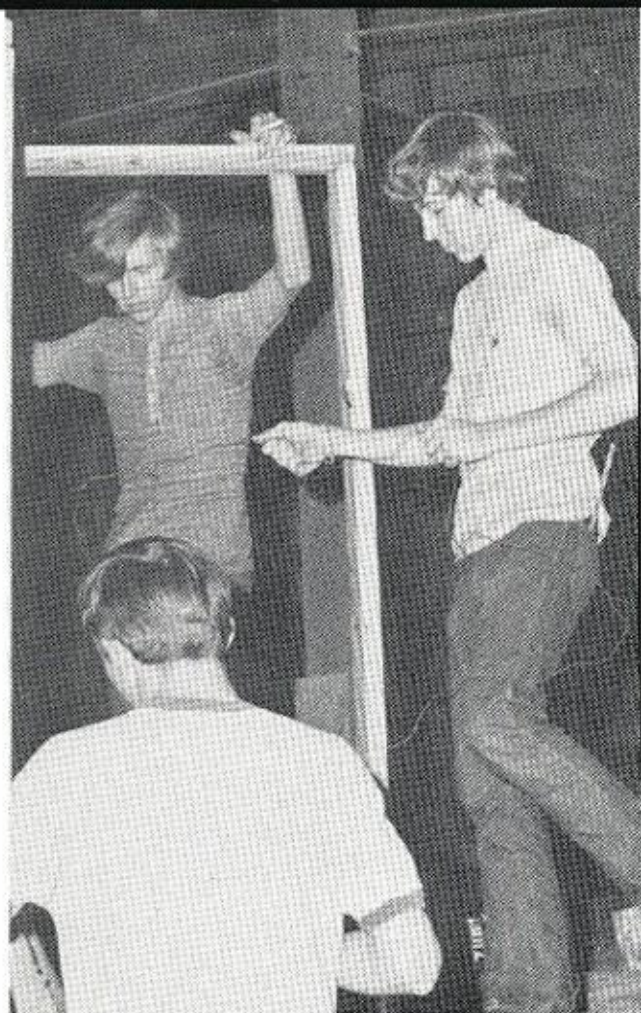

1. Miss Cindy Harlan, pulled by Mr. Charlie Hambrick, represented the F.F.A. in the parade.

2. The "Pride of M.H.S." Band heralded the beginning of the parade.

3. Miss Tammy Conner rode the prize winning Spanish Club car.

4. Freshman Debra Harlan, complete with scarlet cape, represented the Freshman class on their "most unusual" entry.

1. Seniors, David Fedro and Rodney Johnson, work on the hut for the Senior float.
2. Freshmen worked hard to make their first car a possible winner.
3. Rhonda Harden helped prove hard work does not always pay off in rewards but in fun.
4. Viesca and Bulldog members worked under the direction of Mike Goeke on their car.
5. The seniors made every thing from scratch, even the rocks.

3▼

2▲

4▼

1. Band members wore their uniforms and answered many questions about why the uniforms were worn.
2. The Junior girls worked long and hard to make their prize-winning float.
3. Teamwork is the way to build a float.
4. Patty Holloway works diligently to make a paper flower.

THE BRAIN AND BRAWN BEHIND THE SCENE

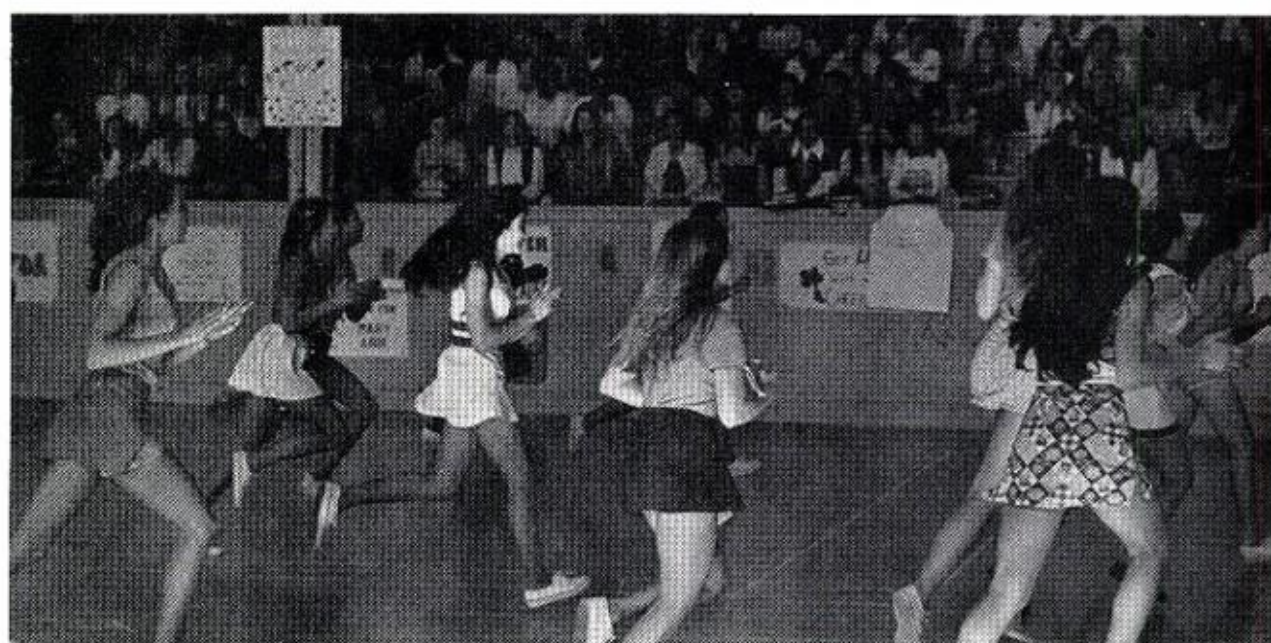

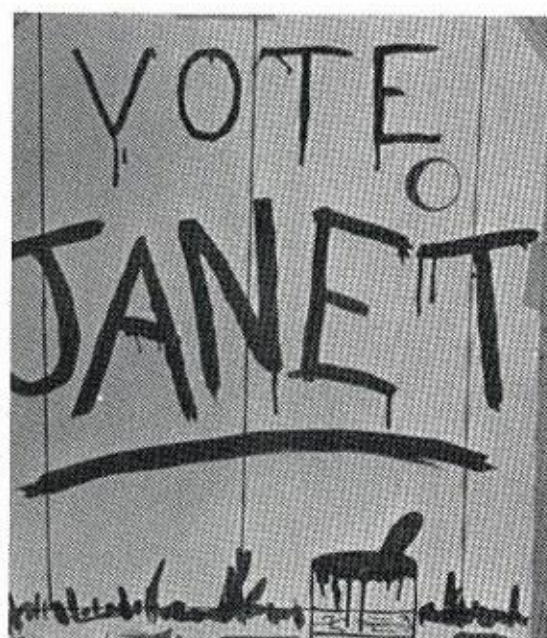

1. The four class Princesses: Senior Dottie Edwards escorted by Clinton Screws, Junior Connie Scruggs escorted by Tommy Alfano, Sophomore Diane Bledsoe escorted by Marion Humphrey, and Freshman Deborah Harlan escorted by Danny Screws.
2. Homecoming Queen, Diane Bledsoe with escort Marion Humphrey, walks out onto the field.
3. Cindy Martin was chosen as the Football Sweetheart.

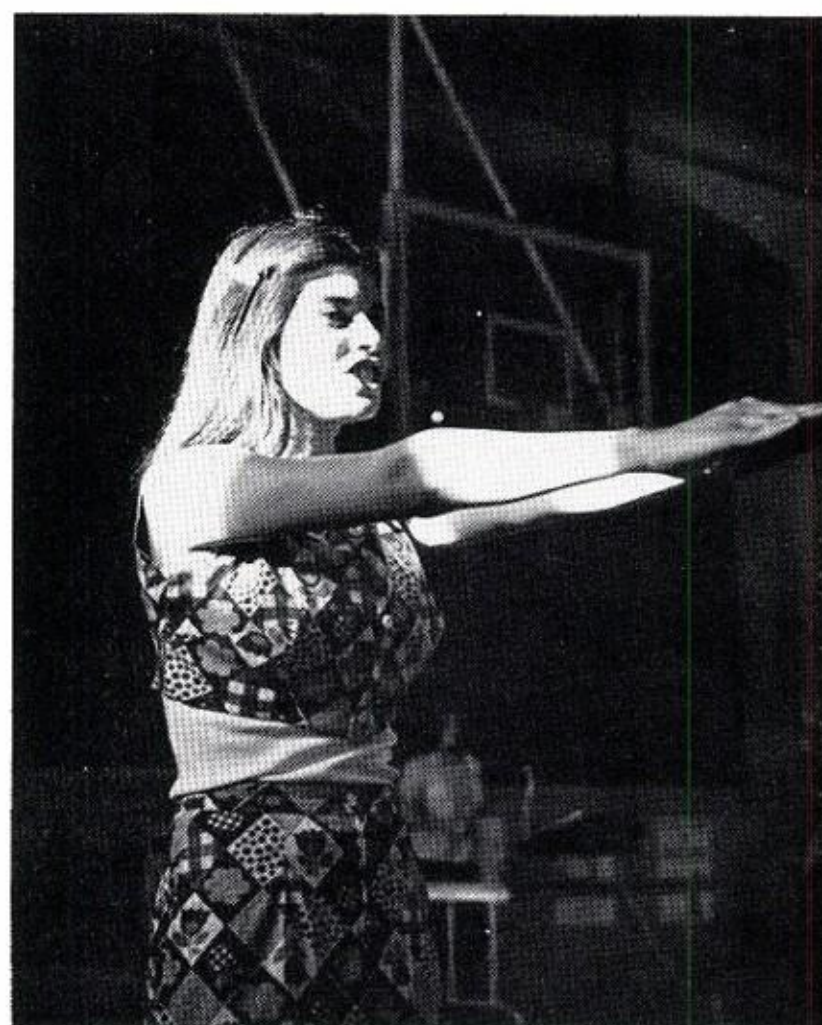

WINTER

RUN FOR THE ROSES

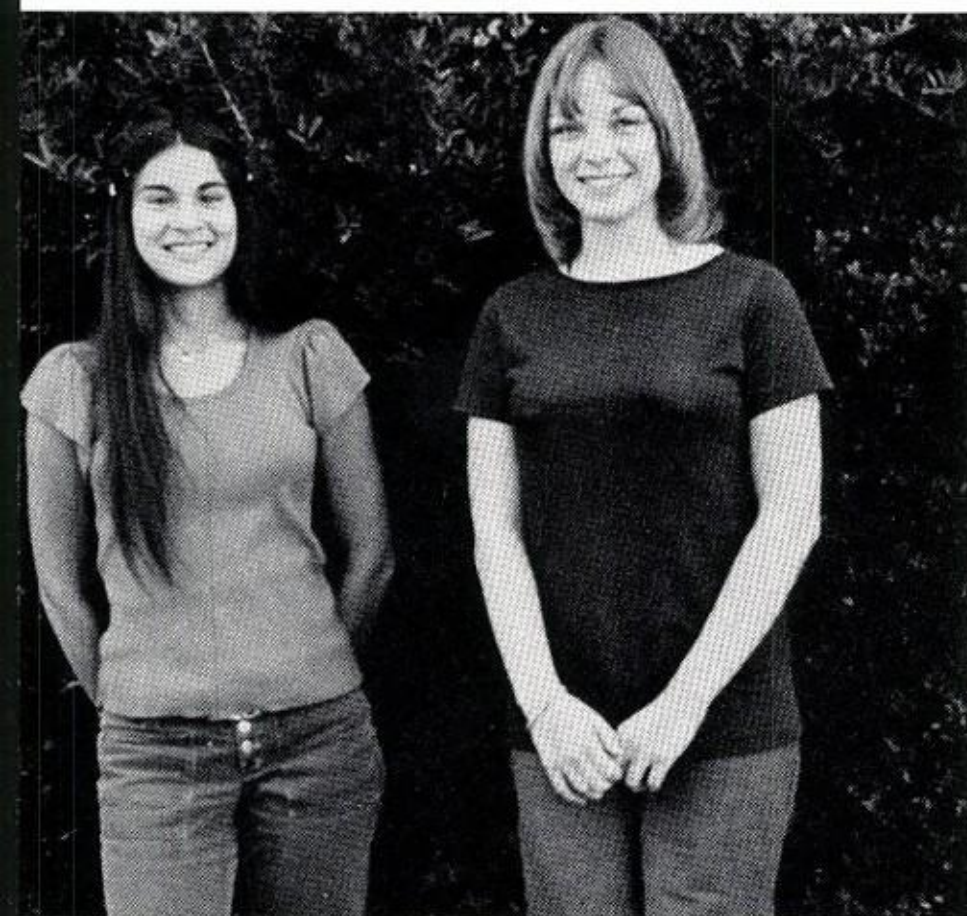

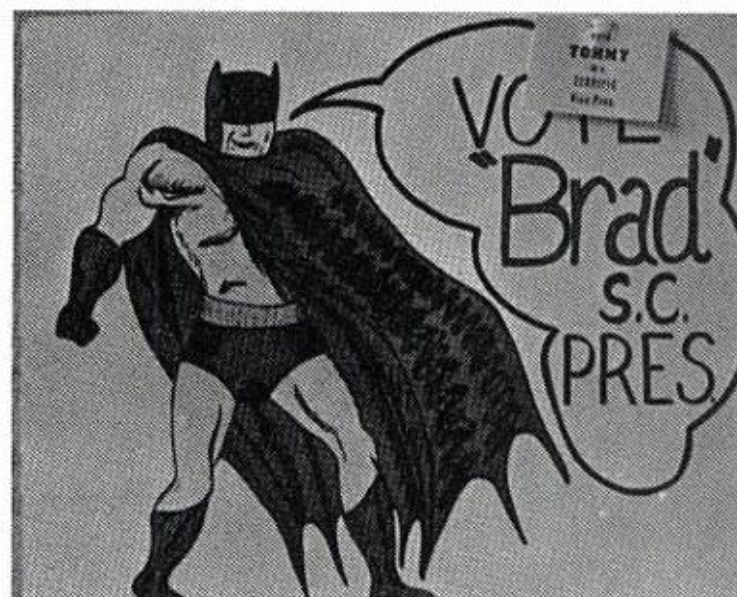

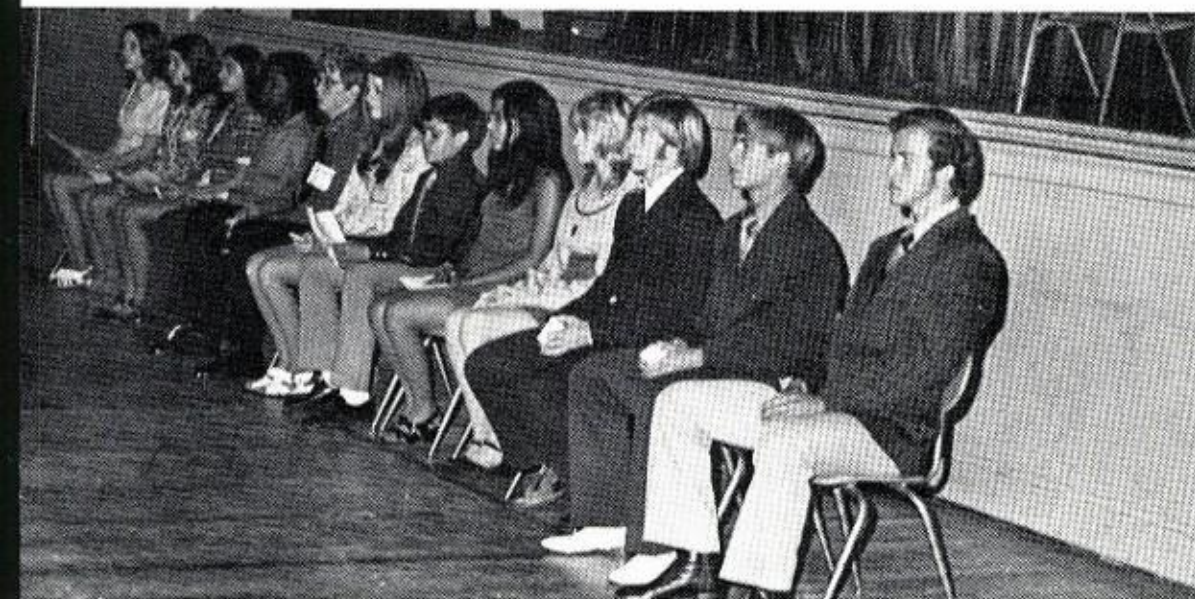

"Vote for. . ." was the cry during elections. The 1973 cheerleader elections and student council elections were divided into two different times for the first year in MHS's history.

SEASON CLOSSES WITH CLANG OF FORK

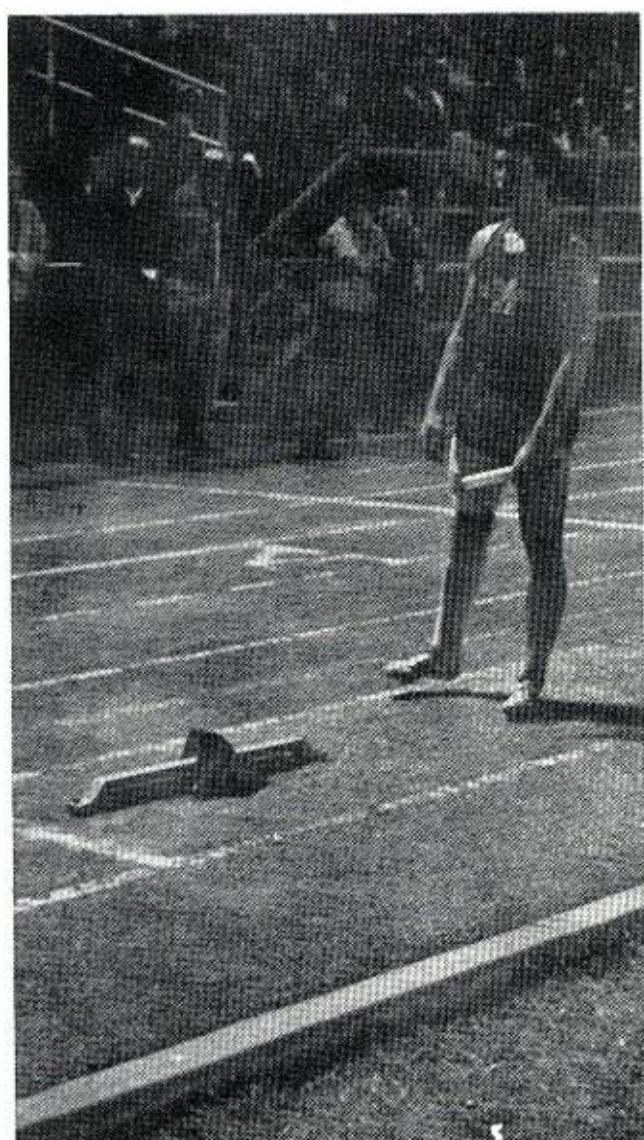

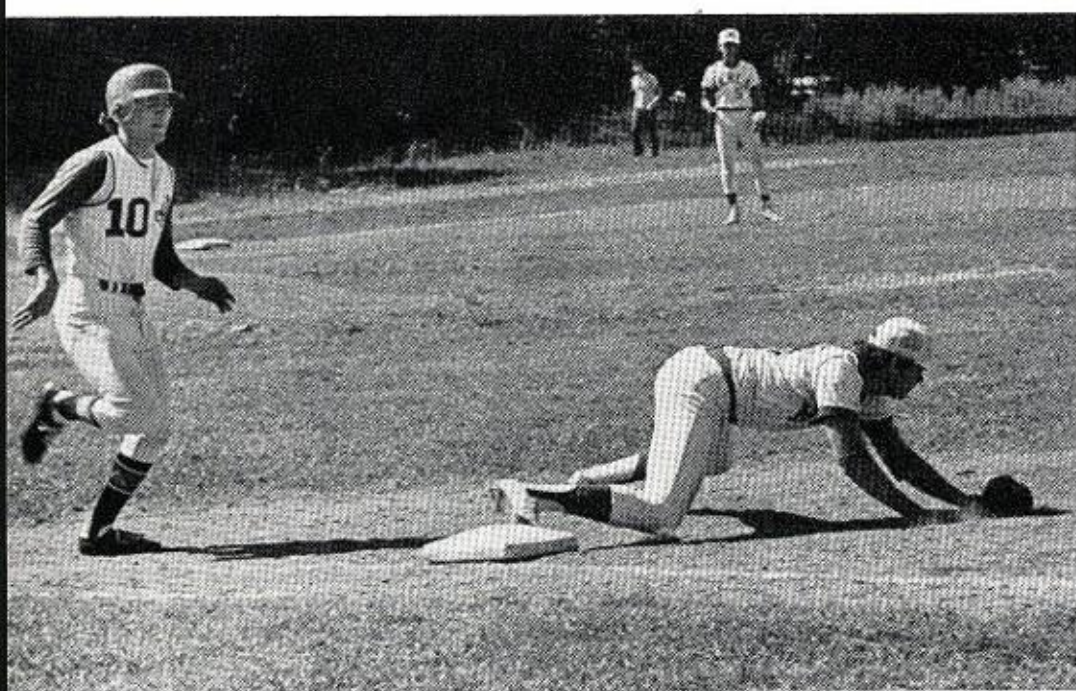

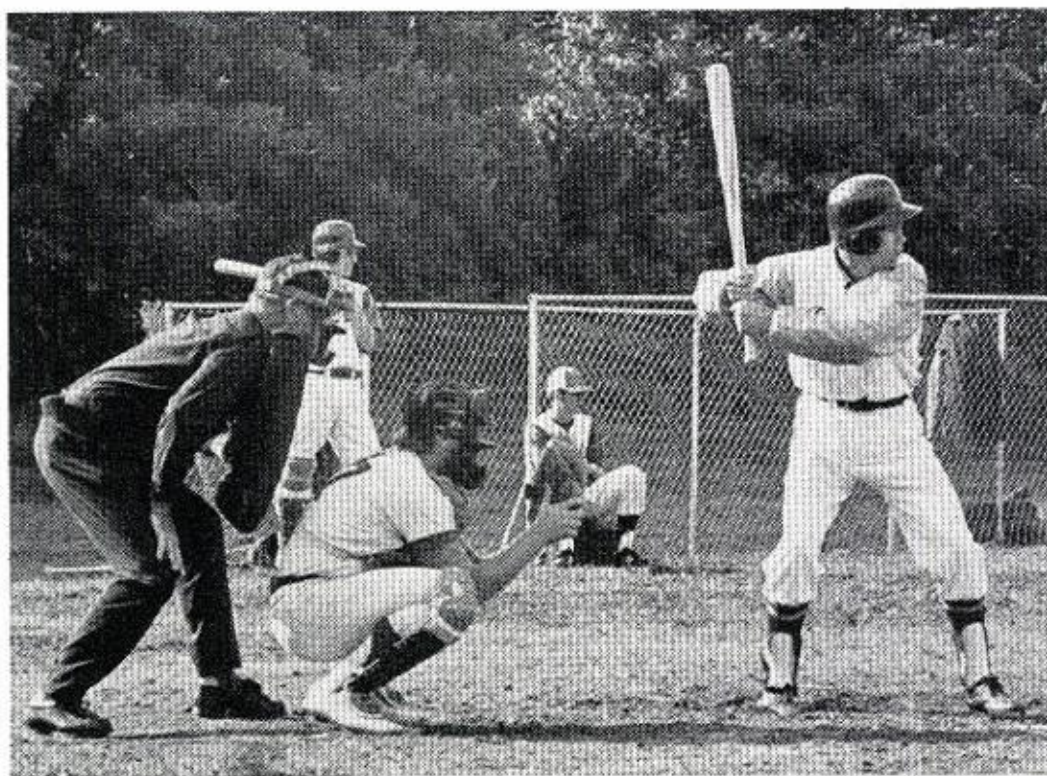

If the last football game didn't end football season, then the final appreciation dinner honoring football players closed the book. Football players, guests, parents, friends, and coaches assembled in the gym December 18 for the last feast of the '72-'73 football season. Lloyd Taylor, head coach at Howard Payne University spoke at this event.

MASK AND GAVEL PRESENTS

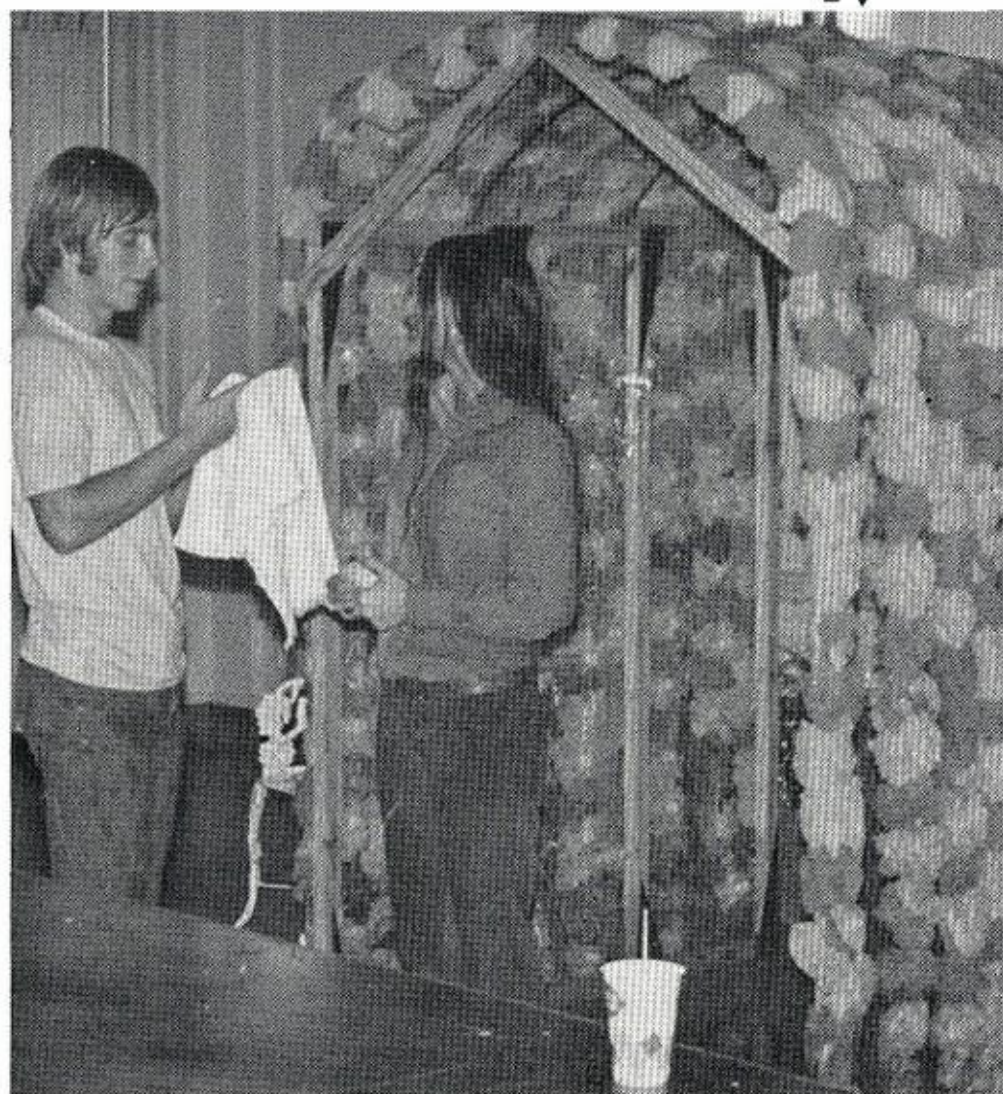

With great success, the Mask and Gavel Club diligently worked to present two one act plays: "Go With the Tide," a drama, and "The Shock of His Life," a comedy. The production was presented under the direction of Mrs. Charles Hambrick, with Mr. Hambrick heading the prop committees.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

This is what the students of the following classes did by developing various skills and then using them. The classes were: Typing, Record Keeping, Shorthand, Accounting, Vocational Office Education, Distributive Education, Cooperative Agriculture, Industrial Cooperative Training, and Hero-FHA Organization.

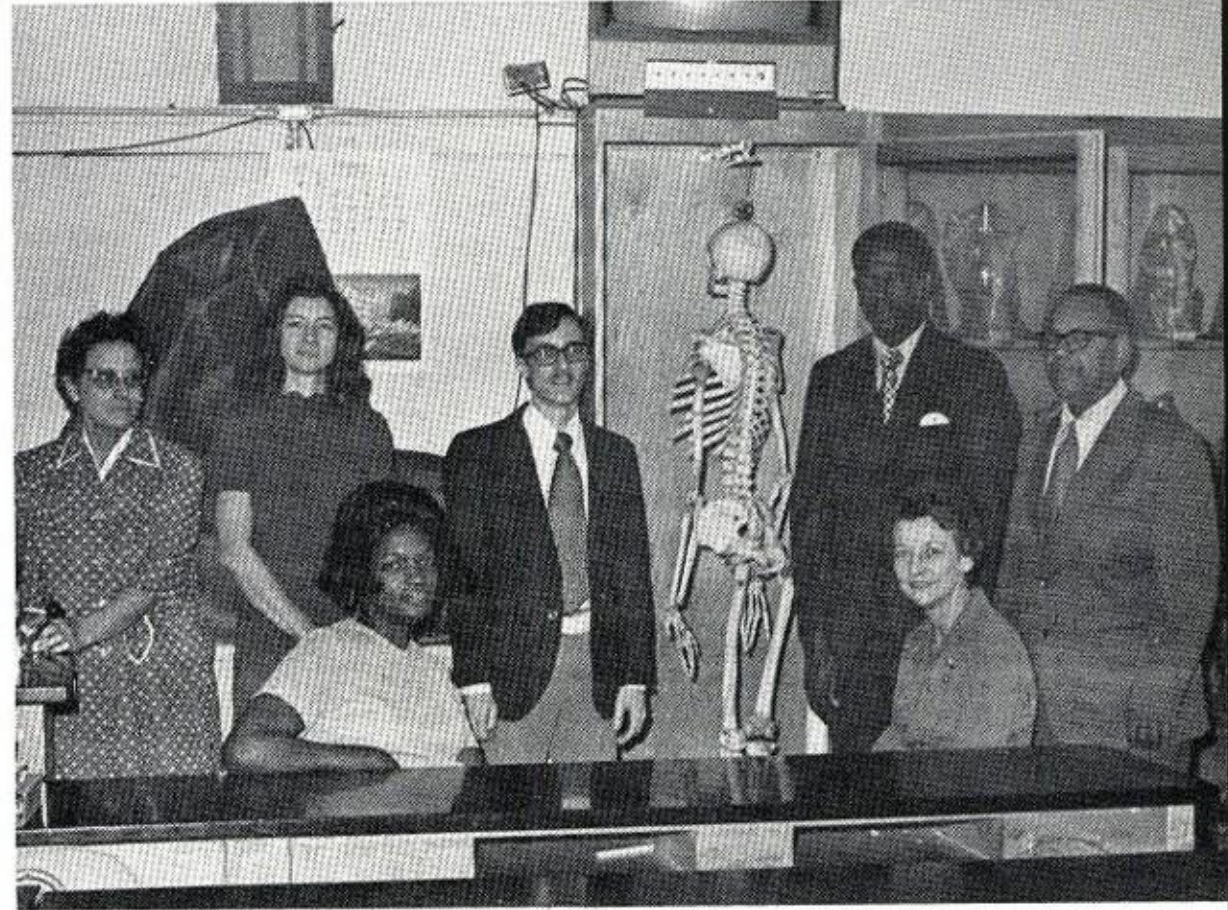

The following teachers assisted the students in choosing and bettering their skills:

Mrs. Lois Hooker—Typing, Record Keeping;
Mr. William Kirkpatrick—Distributive Education;
Mrs. Lois McCallum—Vocational Office Education;
Mrs. Dorothy Lumpkin—Typing, Shorthand;
Mr. H. T. Torgerson—Industrial Cooperative Training;
Mrs. Jewel Dorsey—Cooperative Homemaking;
Mrs. Ann Neiderer—Typing, Shorthand;
Miss Maudie Ragsdale—Record Keeping.

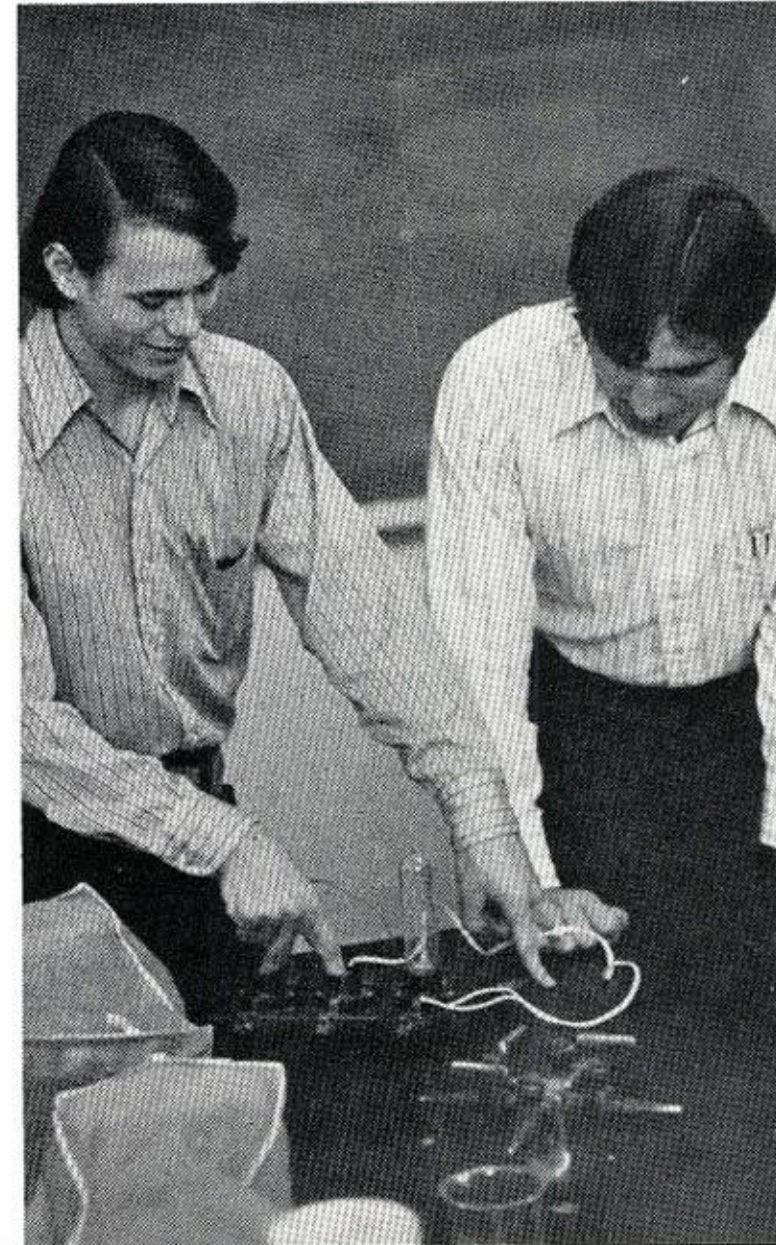

PROBING THE UNKNOWN

The 1972-73 school year will be remembered by many students as a year for searching and then finding answers. Students worked in the following classes: Related Math, Algebra, Trigonometry, Advanced Math, Geometry, Chemistry, Data Processing, Physics, Biology, and Physical Science.

1. The following instructed the students: Miss Merry Berry—Chemistry, Physics, Biology; Mrs. Georgia Schmid—Biology; Mrs. Ruthie Buster—Related Math; Mr. Steven Walker—Data Processing, Algebra I; The Skeleton; Mr. Bishop Williams—Physical Science, Biology; Mrs. Mary Emily McGregor—Trig., Algebra II, Advanced Math; Mr. Wadsworth Soders—Related Math III; Mrs. Mary Walker—Geometry, Algebra I and II.

FACT AND FICTION

The enlightened year of fact and fiction engulfed our minds to ask why?

Jean Pamplin, Spanish and English; Joan Jordan, English; Maudie Ragsdale, English; Jeanine Hambrick, English and Speech; Elizabeth Hodges, Journalism and English; Velma Garrett, English; Sarah Norton, English, Tennie Lee Gardner, English, Virginia Stem, English.

THE OLD FRONTIER

To those who need to look back on the old frontier, look ahead to new horizons.

Lyndon Gathright, World History; Joan Jordan, World History; Velma Garrett, Civics; Dorothy Lumpkin, Economics; Margaret Gray, American History; Mary Catherine Smith, World History; Jack Arnwine, American History.

MAKING MELODIES

In football season and concert season the M. H. S. band performs with pride and ability.

MAKING MASTERS

Under the artful direction of Mrs. Sam Gray, students from three daily art classes paint, poster and pastel. Some of the highlights from a year of crafts and colors were: fantasy fur creatures, an oil mural done by Art II students, clay work, on the spot sketching and lettering design.

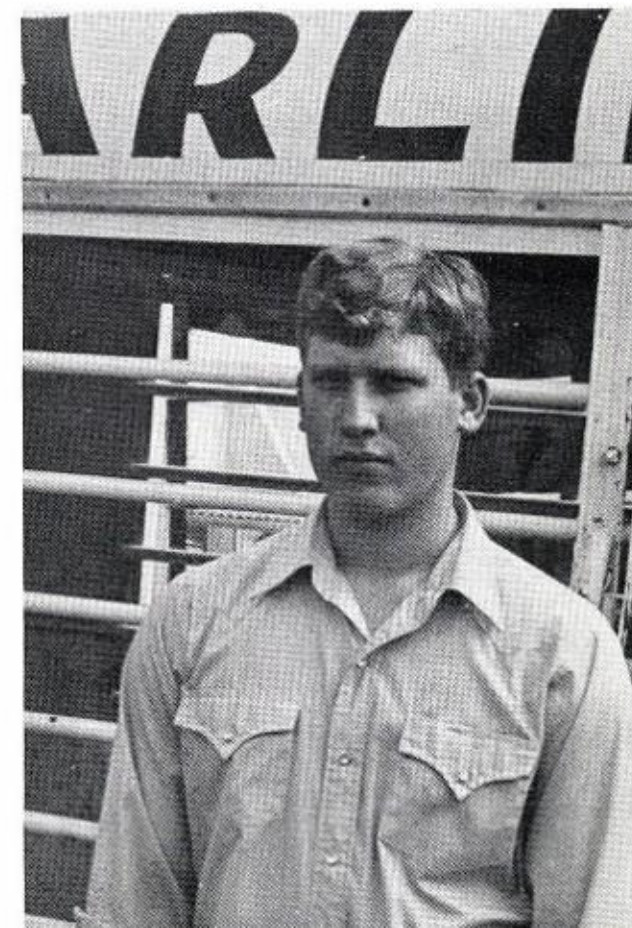

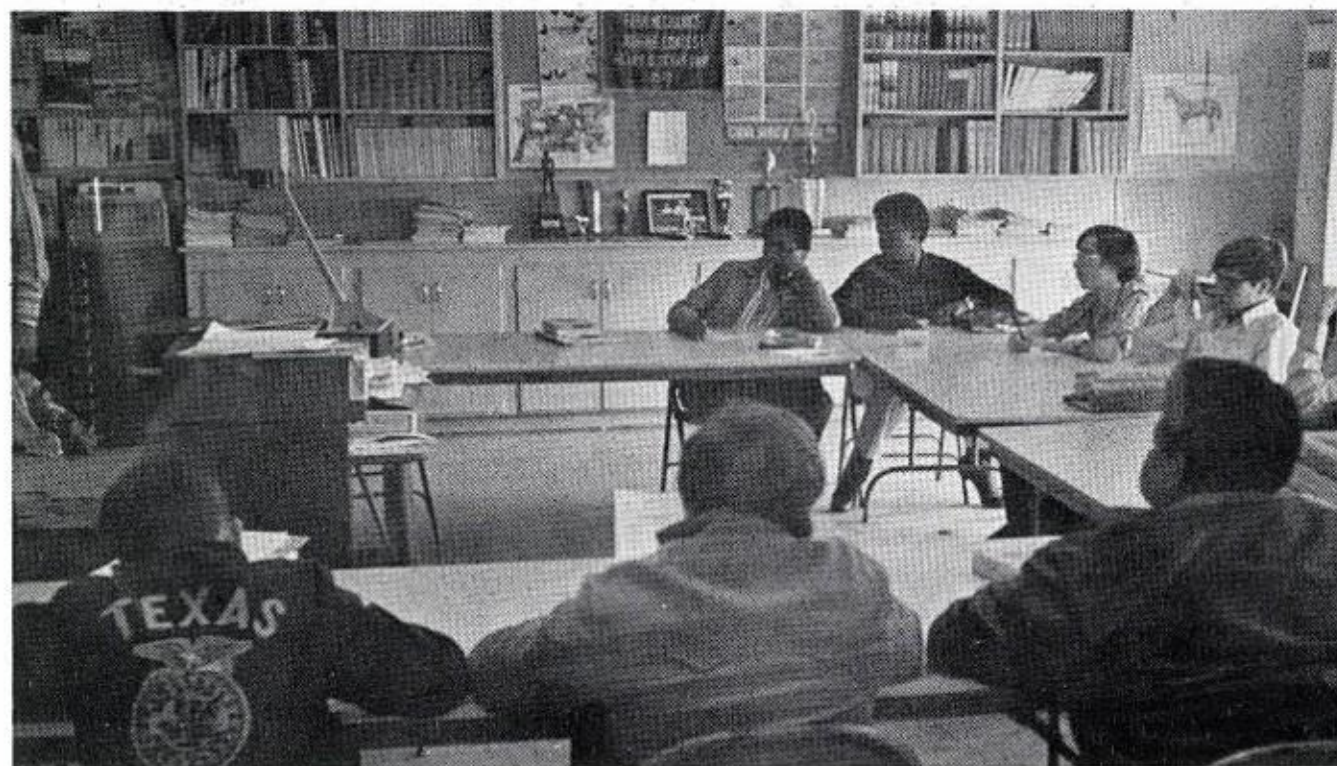

LEARNING TO FEED THE WORLD

Ag teachers L. to R.: D. Posey, T. Wilton, C. Hambrick, and D. Derry

MAKING LIFE EASIER

Homemakers make life easier for themselves and others by learning how to cook, sew, budget family earnings, and take care of a young child.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The following teachers instructed the students in physical education.

1. Lyndon Gathright
2. Georgia Schmid
3. Tillie Perkins
4. Glynn Lindsey

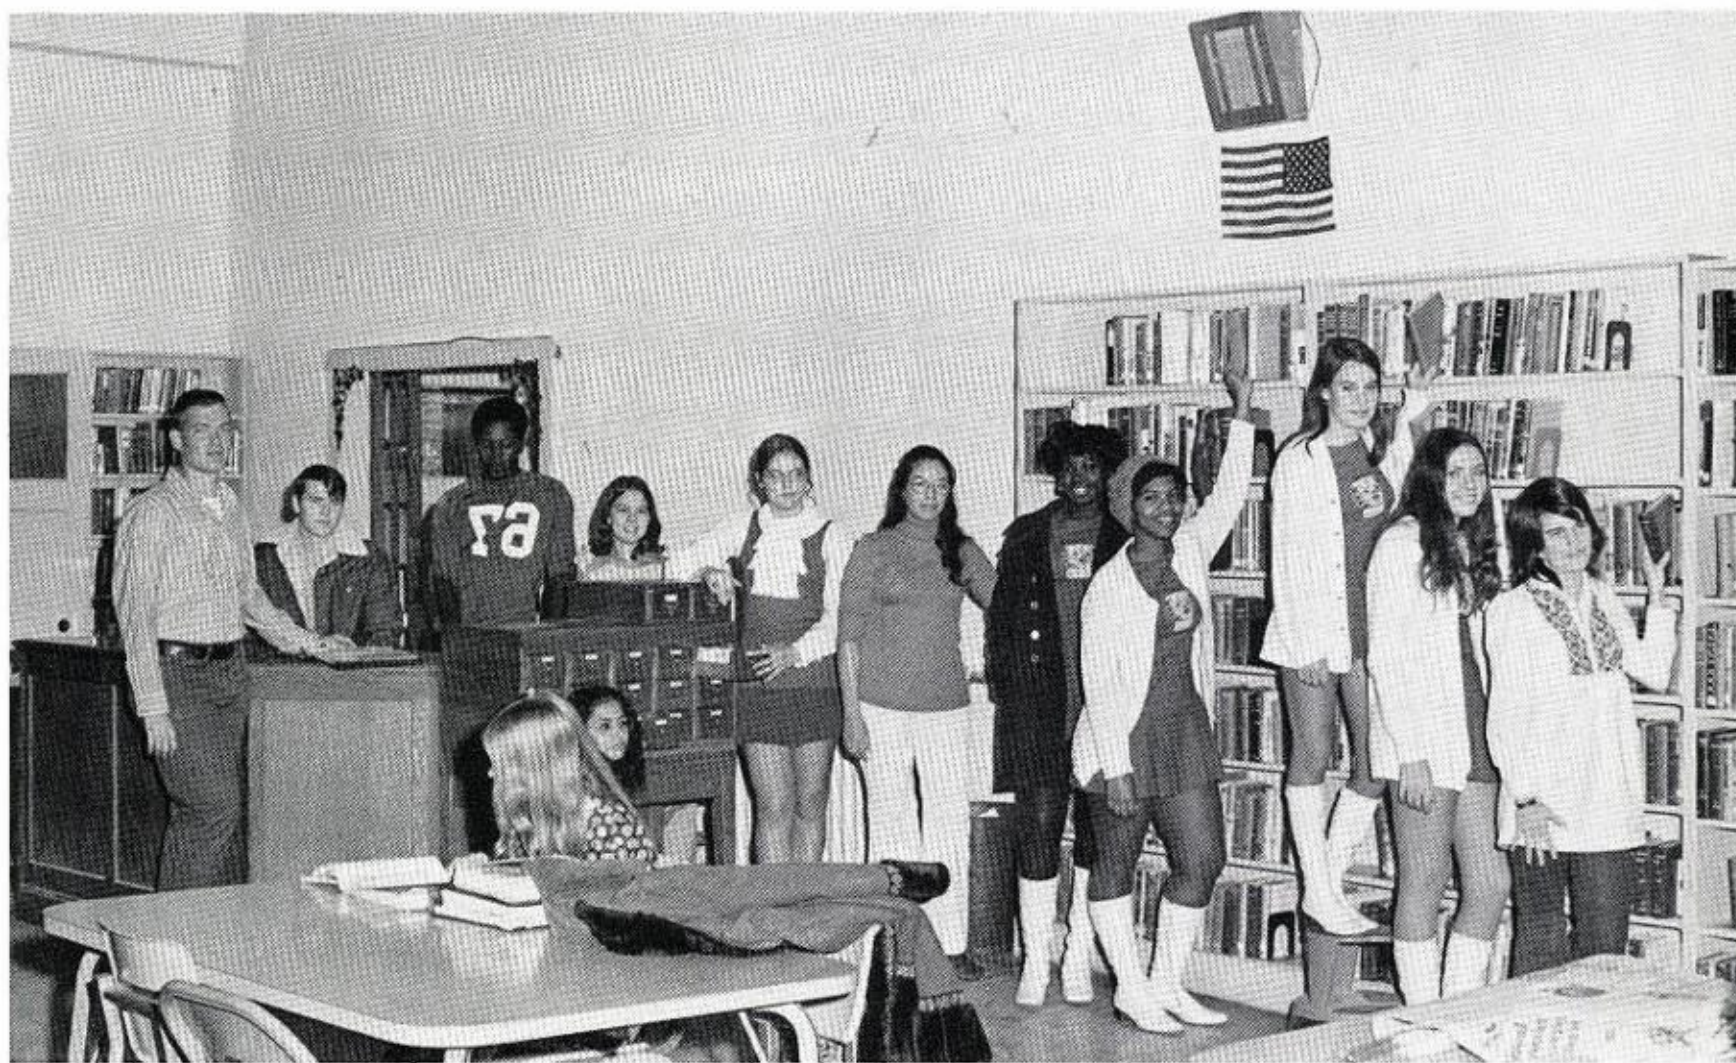

The 1972-73 school year will be remembered as the year for one-half year health course to be required for all students. The girls under the direction of Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Schmid participated in sports such as volleyball and basketball. Girls folk and squared danced also. The boys participated in volleyball, dodgeball, and basketball.

THE BOOK VENDERS

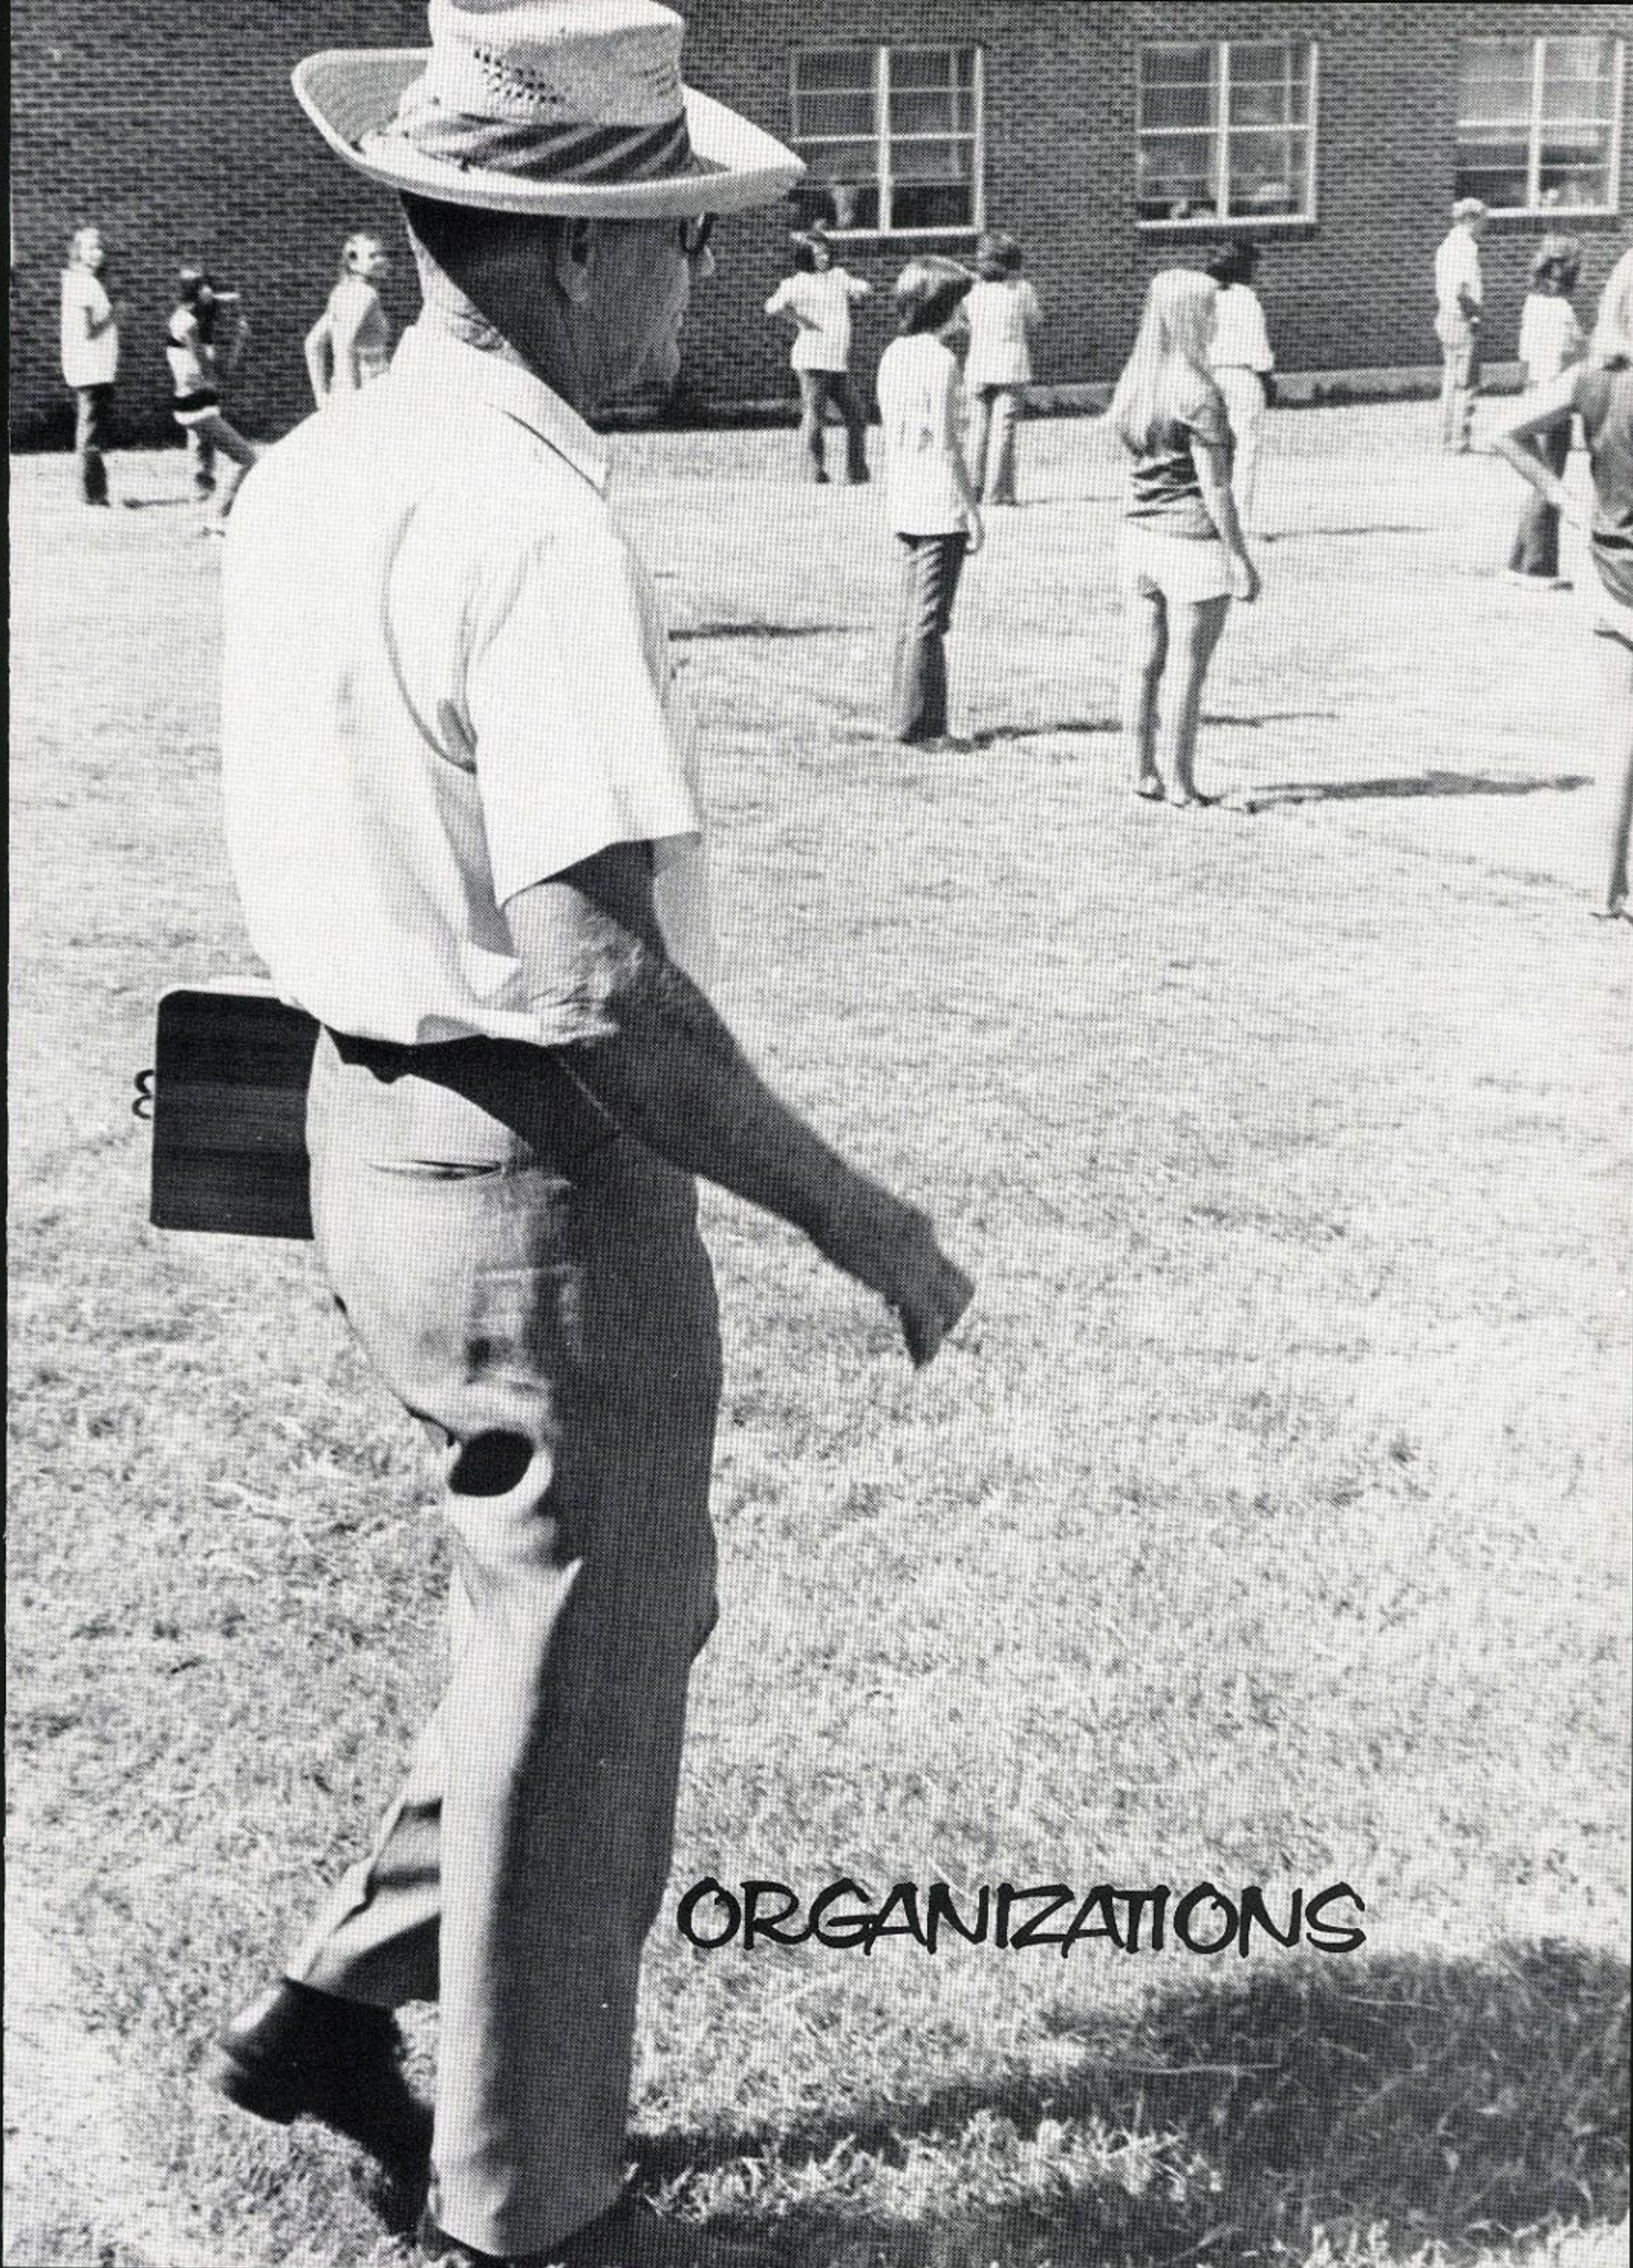

The Marlin High library assistants and Mrs. Kirkpatrick worked diligently throughout the 1972-73 year. Remember looking for a book you couldn't find? These heroes helped get book reports in on time.

LIBRARIAN: Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick

CREATIVITY

"FIRST GRADE"

First grade is watching chalk dust float down
From erasers beaten together by eager hands.
First grade is writing with big fat pencils A, B, C
And "cat" and "dog" and 1,2,3 on special tablets
With blue dotted lines.
First grade is climbing on the jungle gym and Hanging by your knees to see what the world
Looks like upside down.
First grade is falling in love with the little boy
On the second row who has black cowboy boots
And no front teeth.
First grade is when the day seems five years
Long and everybody plays chase on the merry-go-round
And shouts "Kings" and "Can't catch a flea on granma's knee!"
And everybody helps decorate the tree at Christmas and Slides on the ice and isn't it kind of sad that first
Grade happens only once in a lifetime;

Elaine Gray

"I'M A TREE"

I'm a tree
Look at me today
Look at me yesterday and tomorrow
I'm growing
I'm changing
I'm blooming
I'm dying
I'm green and supple
I'm burnished and brittle
Look at me, forever changing
I'm a tree.

Marlise Kupper

"THE OLD MAN"

The old man's weary
His walls cracked and floors trod thin
By countless footsteps.
Drowse, old man and remember
The many who have passed this way.

Marlise Kupper

"HONEST"

We don't exactly go together hand in hand
But I'm sure of one thing, it's my right hand.
Some of our ideas aren't exactly the same
But anything true you have to offer, I'll surely claim.

Charles Lang

"MORNING"

Early morning sings
With promises of new life
As we harmonize.

Marlise Kupper

"A DISASTER"

Up in the air we all saw it.
It was a plane and a man
fell out of it;
We started running to see what was left
When all of a sudden he sprouted a chute
And he floated gently to earth.
Stephen Schneider

"ICE CREAM SUNDAY"

Father pumped the handle harder
While Mama added salt.
We ached for dinner silently
Craving all the more dessert.

Stuffed with chicken, dreading "dishes",
I watched as Mama dipped it.
Out of the frosty bucket, into the bowls
She towered the melting mountains.

The throbbing pain of that first bite
Brought memories of Cousin Freddy and his bet:
We raced to gobble chocolate ice cream
On Grandma's back porch step.

Now snowy mounds in pools of cream
Like the bowl I gave to Tom, my cat.
The ice, too cold, he waited patiently for it to melt
As patiently as watching a rathole at sunset.

Only a little lump was left.
I smiled and thought of Johnny
Devilishly dropping down my back a lump.
I had screamed, then we laughed; and now I smile
as I recall.

Mama caught me smiling at my bowl.
"Is it good?" she asked.
But I could only grin and nod—
Yes, it was good.

Sherri Baker

"CHECKERS"

What is life but a game of checkers?
What is love but the crowning of a king—
Then getting jumped?
Even races are there—
All black or red.
Moving from square to square to square—
Ever shifting.
And they disappear—
One by one each checker is jumped
And taken away.
Then the game begins again—a new generation
A new beginning with jumped kings, races,
And disappearing checkers.

Sheila Edmonds

"MY OWN WORLD"

The tires sing to me
As I travel down the road
With traffic flowing past me
And me in my own world.

Thinking of things,
Past and future,
Passes time faster
For me on the road.

Quiet country road
With me all alone,
I notice the birds
And the distant horizon.

Faster and faster,
Then slowing down,
Singing or dreaming,
I go down the road.
Ricky Muchow

"GRAFFITI"

While sitting in the library,
With nothing else to do,
I gazed down upon my desk top
And in bold letters, read,
"Timothy loves Sue"
I can't understand
What people get out of it.
To scratch and scribble
On desks that once were clean.
Who cares about:
"I was here" on their desk?
Then some person writes back:
"So was I".
People, use a sheet of paper.
Kathy Walton

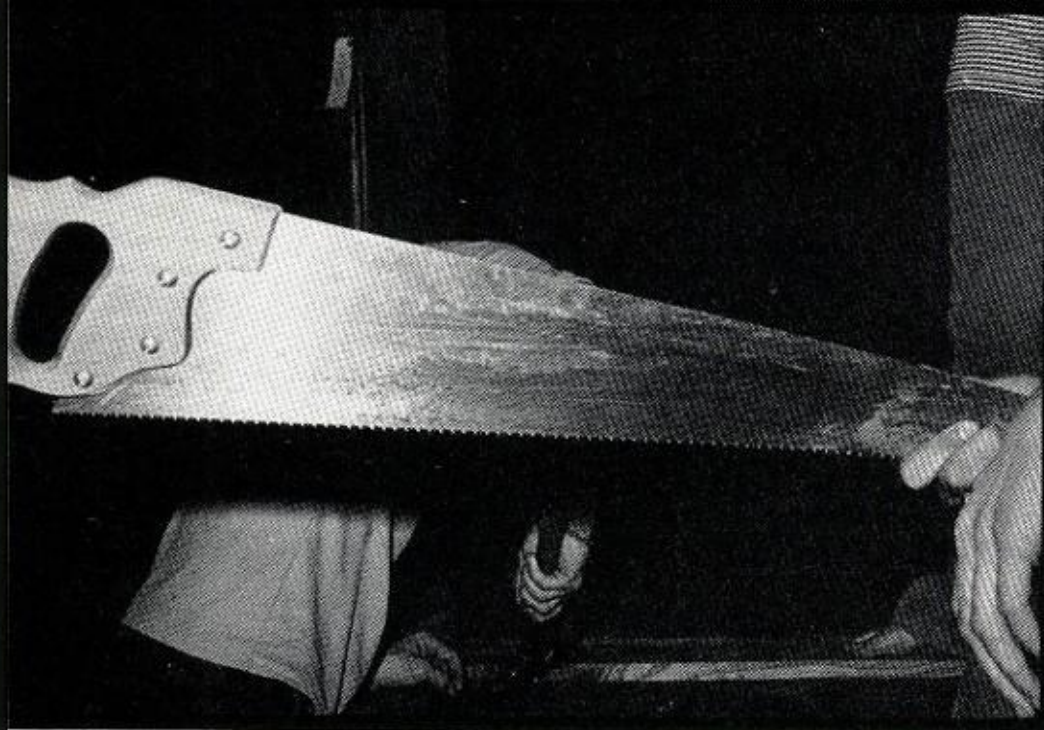

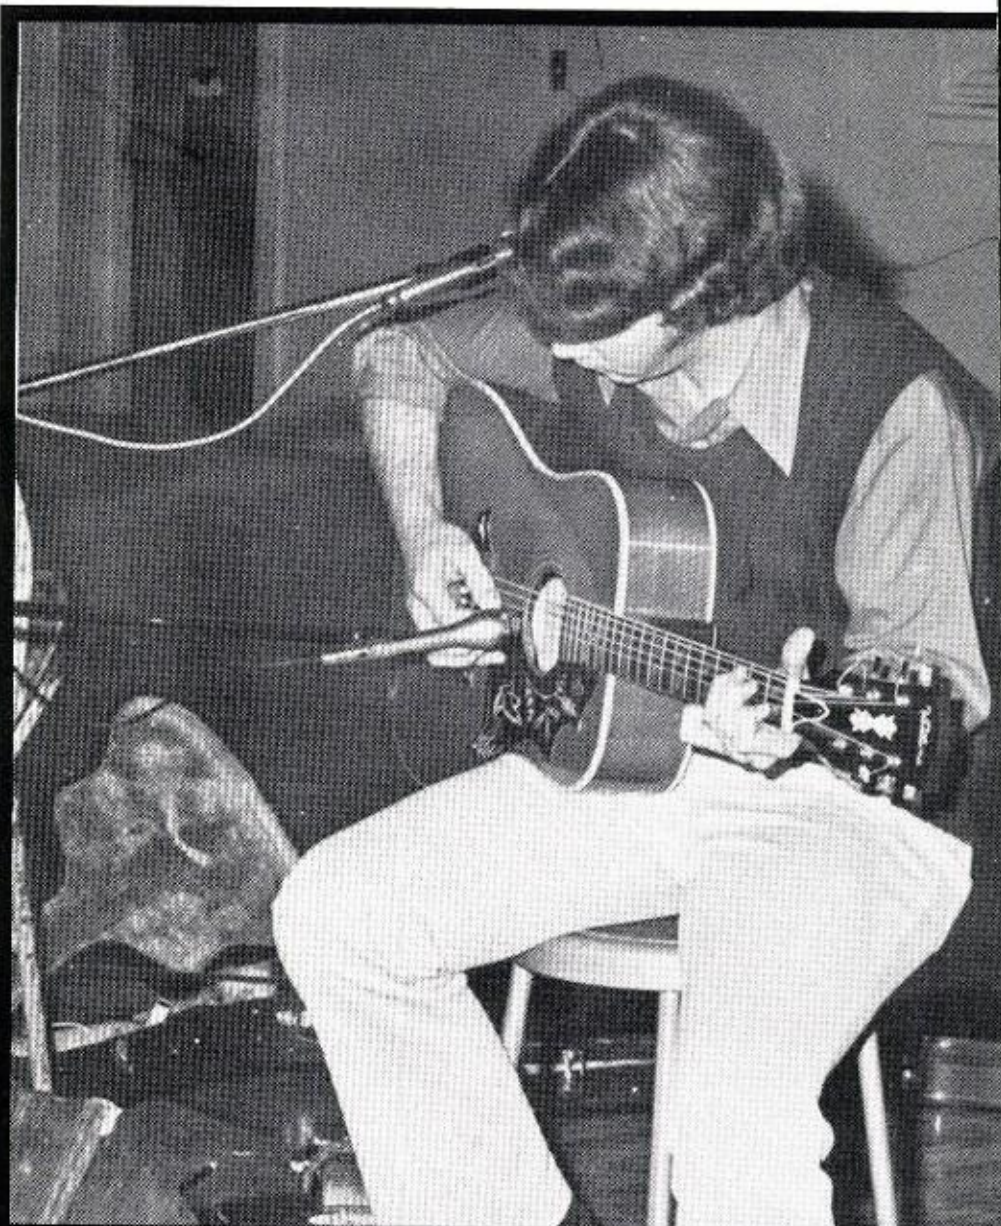

"TOMORROW? WHO KNOWS?"

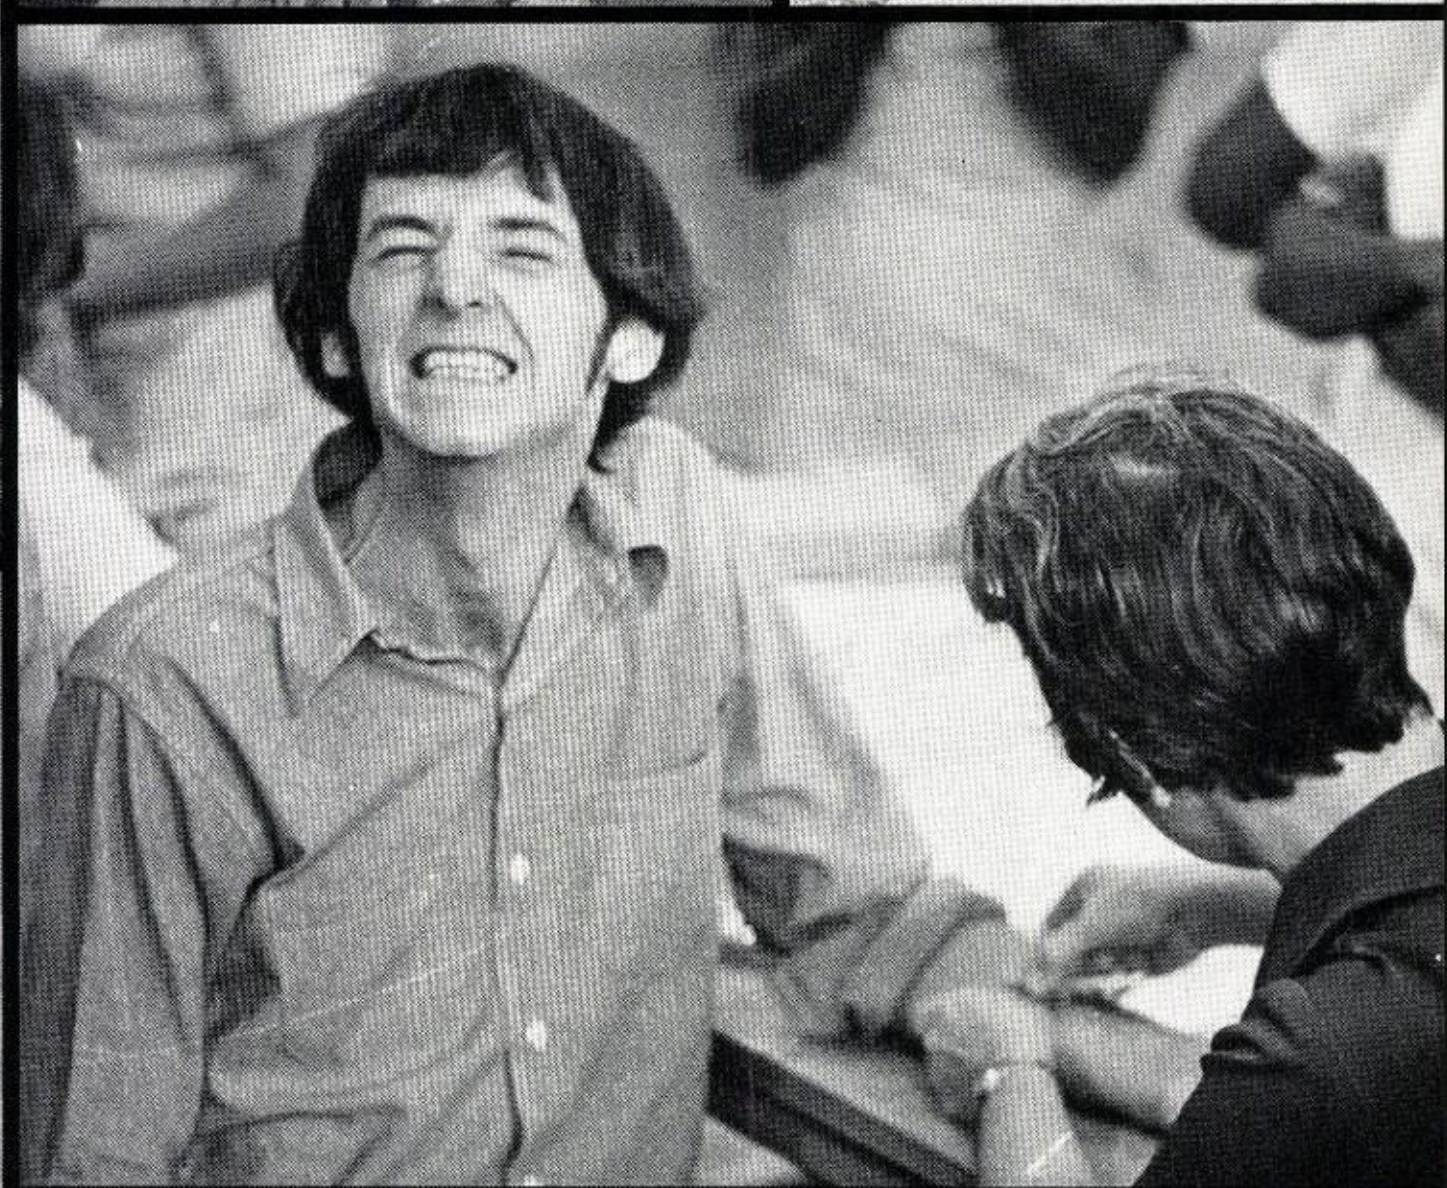

Today we are speaking
Listen today.
Don't wait to start thinking,
Tomorrow's too late.
Do good today
While warm blood still flows.
Though live we today
Tomorrow? Who knows?

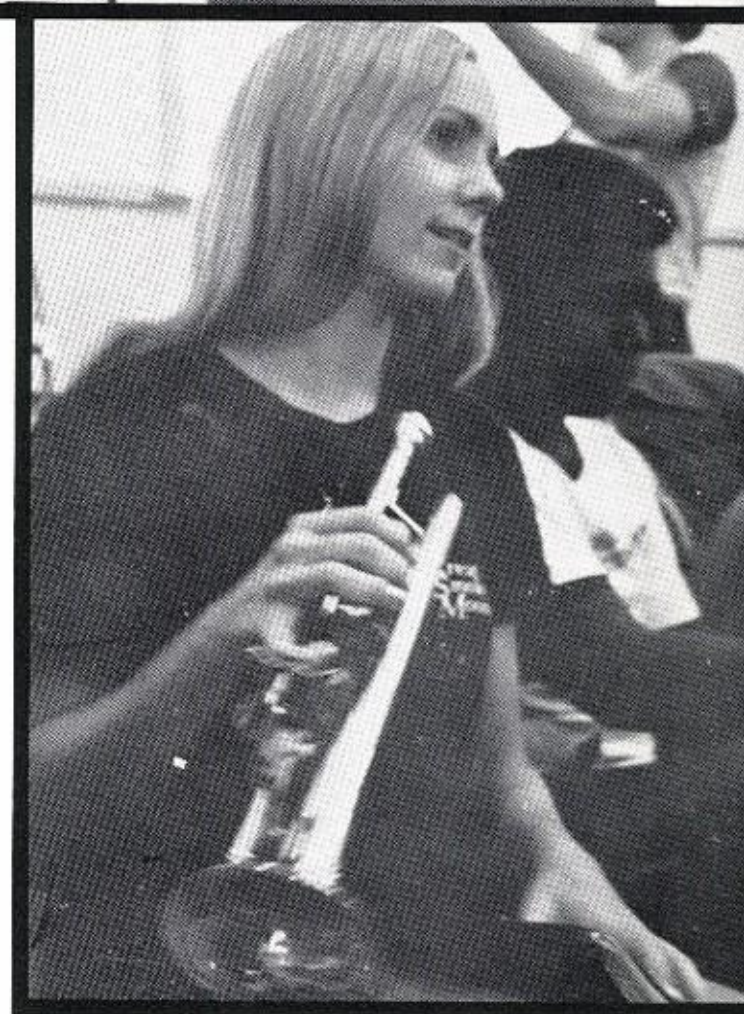

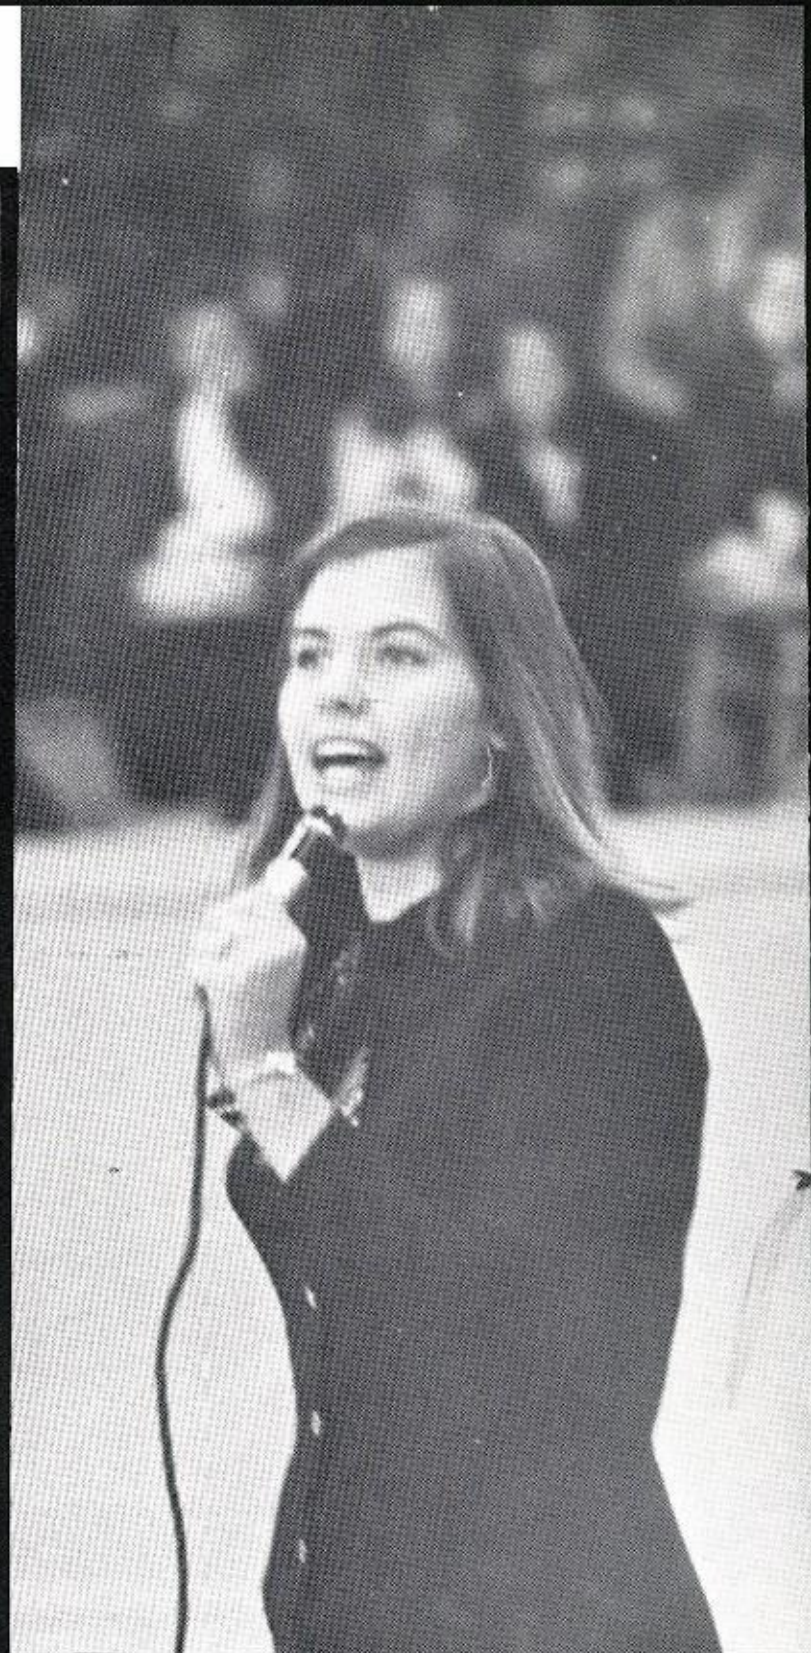

Why does one worry
About constant things?
Since death is certain
Need we fear and cringe?
Why does one try
To count his tomorrows,
When always in counting
He omits destined sorrows?

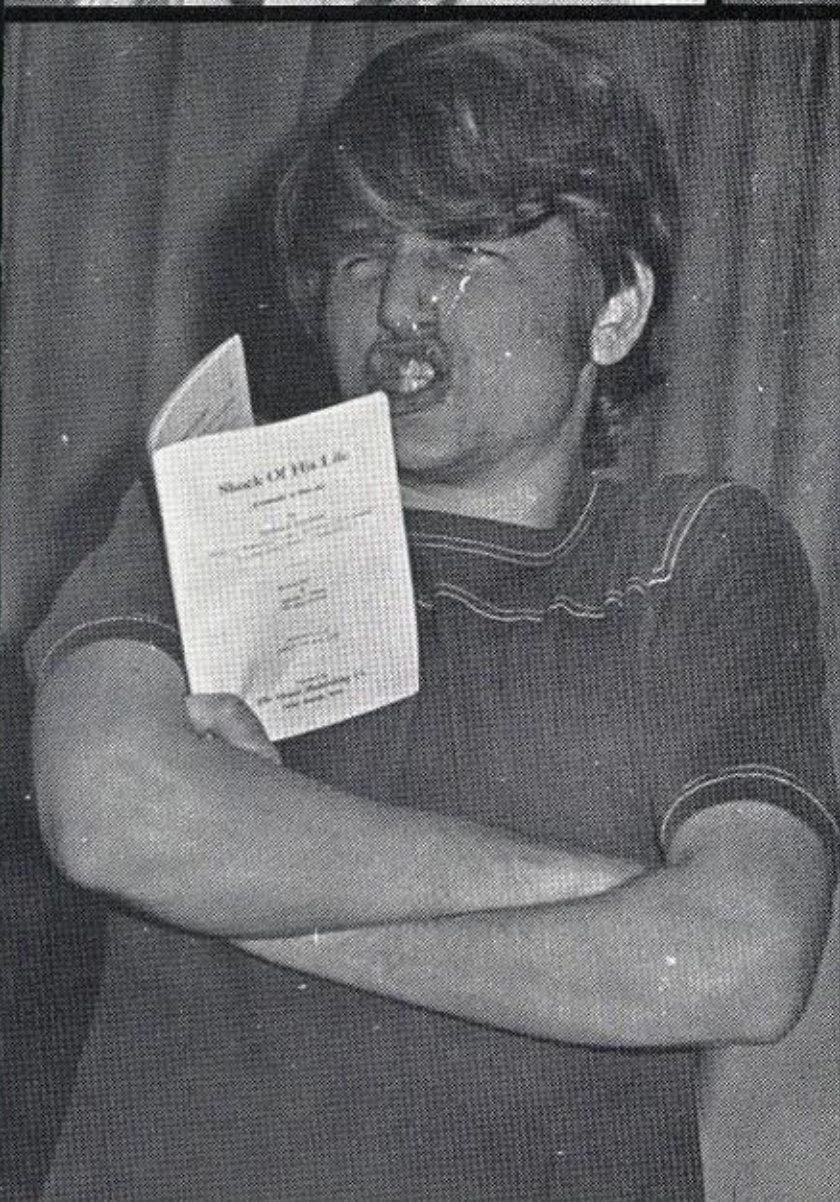

Such as we have
Should we use full measure.
Things we have not
Tend we more to treasure.
Do good today
While warm blood still flows
Though live we today.
Tomorrow? Who knows?
Willis Williams
